The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

By Captain Southcott from Briſtol; and the Captains Dowers, Edwards, and Stamper, from Liſbon, we have the following Advices, viz.

PARIS-a-la-MAIN, December 10.

ON Friday Morning the Chatelet being aſſembled, as ſoon as the Lieutenant Civil appeared, all the Counſellors roſe up to go away. At which this Magiſtrate, being aſtoniſh'd, aſk'd the Reaſon of their doing ſo; but they gave him no Anſwer, and retired in Silence. However, they left in their Office the following Declaration: "The Company, conſidering the Impriſonment of one of their Chiefs, the Reſtraints upon their Liberty in giving their Suffrages, and the preſent Misfortunes which they labour under, are ſo fearful of their own Safety, that they are incapable of providing for the Security of their Fellow Citizens, or their Eſtates, they therefore thought proper to withdraw." They left the Lieutenant Civil alone in the Chatelet.

Dec. 14. Laſt Monday every one of the Counſellors of the Chatelet received a Letter de Cachet which ordered them to aſſemble themſelves; in Purſuance thereto they accordingly met, and found at the Place of their Meeting, Letters Patent, which ordered them to re-aſſume their Buſineſs; they heard theſe Letters read ſtanding, after which they ſat and deliberated upon what was in this Caſe to be done, and determined that they would begin to do no Buſineſs till their Brethren under Confinement were ſet at Liberty. They afterwards reſolved upon cauſing a Remonſtrance to be drawn up in order to be preſented to the King, and appointed two of their Members to draw up the Articles of ſuch Remonſtrance, and to make Report thereof to the Company; that when this was done it ſhould be carried to the King: That the Lieutenant Civil ſhould be charged with a Meſſage to his Majeſty, to pray an Arret of Council, which ſhould render ineffectual that of the Chamber Royal, whereby Mr. Gueret de Voiſin had been decreed to appear perſonally, Liberty to M. de Montuchet who was impriſoned in the Baſtile, and the Revocation of the Letter de Cachet, which was the Cauſe of Mr. Million's abſconding, and to aſſure his Majeſty, that they would not do any Buſineſs until he had ordered that their Demands ſhould be complied with. It is aſſured that next Tueſday they will have an Anſwer from the Court.

Moſcow, Nov. 12. We made no doubt of the Court's continuing here during the Winter; but the dreadful Accident that has happened this Day gives too much Reaſon to fear the contrary. A Fire broke out in the Afternoon, in the Office of the Caſtle, which has ſeized the Appartments of the Court. We have great Hopes it will be extinguiſhed, tho' it has done already a great deal of Miſchief. The Poſt going out before any Thing can be known with Certainty, occaſions this confuſed Account, and will no Queſtion create many Contradictions in the Letters from hence, as it is impoſſible any diſtinct Relation can be given of a Misfortune 'til it is entirely over, and People recover from their Fright.

Madrid, Nov. 26. Many Provinces in this Kingdom, particularly thoſe of Caſtile, are ſtill in the greateſt Want of Rain, for which Reaſon the King, to prevent as much as poſſible the Miſeries that threaten his People, has ordered great Quantities of Corn to be bought up in the Kingdoms of Naples and Sicily, at the Expence of the Royal Treaſury, in order, that, as ſoon as it is imported, it may be delivered out to the People at a moderate Price.

Hague, Dec. 15. We learn by an Expreſs juſt arrived, that the firſt Accounts of the terrible Fire at Moſcow, were but too true. The greateſt Part of the new Palace is burnt to the Ground, with an immenſe Quantity of rich Furniture; the Wardrobes of the Grand Duke, of the High Chancellor, the Count de Beſtucheff, the Vice Chancellor, Count Woranzoff, and ſeveral other Miniſters, to a prodigious Value. The Fire at Archangel deſtroyed, in Goods and Merchandize of different Kinds, to the Value of two Millions of Rubles; the Loſs in both Places has fallen entirely upon the Ruſſians; for the Foreigners, having taken the Precaution to build with Stone, eſcaped.

Stockholm, Nov. 20. The Marquis de Havrincourt, Ambaſſador from France, has lately received conſiderable Remittances from his Court, which, it is ſaid, are to be employed in procuring more Ships to be built in this Kingdom for the Service of his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty.

Madrid, Dec. 11. The Attention of our Miniſtry is principally fixed upon three Points. The firſt is to provide Subſiſtance for the interior Provinces of the Kingdom, where there is an extraordinary Scarcity of Corn. In the ſecond Place they are taking new Meaſures with the Allies of his Majeſty for maintaining the Tranquility of the Affairs of Italy, which, tho' People in general ſay otherwiſe, appears to us leſs ſecure ſince the Concluſion of the Treaty of the Court of Vienna with that of Modena. The laſt and not leaſt eſſential Point is, to keep upon a reſpectable Footing our naval Force in America, as well for the Dignity of the Monarch, as for the Advantage of our Commerce, which is clandeſtinely carried on by foreign Nations.

Conſtantinople, Nov. 6. Several Ambaſſadors, and Miniſters of the Chriſtian Powers having complained to the Porte, that the Regency of Algiers have of late paid very little Regard to their Treaties: The Grand Signor, after conſidering the ſaid Complaints, has declared to the ſaid Ambaſſadors, and Miniſters, that for the future he will give no Manner of Protection to the ſaid Regency in caſe they do not punctually fulfil their Engagements with the Chriſtian Powers, and ſeverely puniſh all the Officers of their Cruizers who ſhall not ſtrictly conform to their Inſtructions; and his ſublime Highneſs has ordered this Declaration to be diſpatched immediately to the Regency of Algiers.

Paris A la-main, Dec. 31. The Members of the Chatelet aſſembled laſt Saturday according to their Adjournment, notwithſtanding the Prohibition of his Majeſty. All the Members reſolved to take Pains in preparing Repreſentations, which was all that paſſed in this Sitting.

Naples Dec. 11. Forty Thouſand Ducats have been brought this Year into the Royal Treaſury as a Tax upon the Game of Hazard. Nobody daring to play without paying a Duty.

Vienna, Dec. 22. The Count of Firmian, Ambaſſador for this Court to the King of the two Sicilies, is ſet out for Naples, and we are aſſured his chief Buſineſs is to aſſure his Majeſty of the ſtrong Deſire of the Empreſs Queen to preſerve the Peace of Italy, and to act in Concert with him to procure ſuch a laudable Deſign.

Paris, Dec. 8. The Chancellor having ſent for the Members of the Chatelet, ſpoke to them in theſe Words: "Gentlemen, the King will be obey'd, and he muſt be ſo. His Chatelet will force him to recal the Parliament whom he has thought proper to exile. The King is obliged to render Juſtice to all his Subjects; with this View he has appointed a Royal Chamber, to which he expects an entire and univerſal Submiſſion. His Majeſty re eaſes you from the Oath upon which you have inſiſted ſo much, and will receive no farther Repreſentations from you."

Genoa, Dec. 17. The Republick continue to recruit their Troops, by enliſting all Deſerters that arrive from the King of Sardinia's Frontier Garriſons, &c. By Letters of the 4th Inſtant from Baſtia, we are informed, that the Chiefs of the Malecontents have publiſhed an Order, prohibiting any Perſon whatever to treat or correſpond with the Republick, until the Murderers of M. Gaffori are delivered into their Hands. They have wrote circular Letters to the Podeſtas and Magiſtrates of the reſpective Pieves, to hold a general Meeting at Corte; and do not ſeem to ſhew the leaſt Indication to finiſh the Rebellion. Marquis Grimaldi, the Republick's Commiſſary-General at Baſtia, having wrote to the Deputies to come to him at Baſtia, that he might communicate to them the Orders which he had received from the Republick, has received for Anſwer, That they could not wait on him, without Orders from their Chiefs; but that in a few Days they were to have a general Meeting, when it would be determined whether they ſhould or ſhould not wait on him to hear the Republick's Anſwer to what they had demanded.

Paris A-la-Main, Jan. 11. It is aſſured that the Chamber of Conſervation at Lyons has refuſed to acknowledge the Authority of the Royal Chamber.

Stockholm, Jan. 1. It is certain that Orders are arrived for building ſeveral Ships of War and Frigates, for the Service of the Courts of France and Spain. Our Town-Houſe has been lately conſumed by Fire; but the Archives that were preſerved there were ſecured and removed in Time.

Warſaw, Dec. 29. Upon Advice that ſeveral Parties of the Heidamaques were approached the Frontiers of this Kingdom, a large Party of the Crown Army were ſent againſt them, and have not only had the good Fortune to diſperſe them, but even to ſabre a great Number of them, and take thirty Priſoners.

Hanover, Jan. 7. By the laſt Poſt, Orders are come from England to recruit all the Regiments of Horſe and Dragoons in this Electorate by the End of April. We flattered ourſelves with the Hopes of ſeeing his Britannick Majeſty, but the Letters mention poſitively that he will not paſs the Sea this Year.

Paris, Jan 7. It is generally believed the Parliament will be recalled, moſt of the Members of that Great Chamber having Leave to come and paſs their Winter here.

Naples, Dec. 21. The Officers of the Police, who were charged to execute the Edict for prohibiting of Gaming, acquit themſelves with all Punctuality, having lately ſurprized ſix Lords in the Milan Coffee-houſe, who in Contempt of his Majeſty's Orders were at Play, whom they arreſted and carried Priſoners to the Caſtle of L'Oeuf, where they are ſtill detained.

Leghorn, Dec. 25. Letters from Corſica adviſe, that the Deputies of the Pieves which attended the General Aſſembly lately held at Corte, in that Iſland, agreed (and bound themſelves with a ſolemn Oath) to cut out the Tongue of every one who ſhould ſo much as propoſe to ſubmit to, or make Peace with the Republick of Genoa.

Paris, Jan. 15. The Royal Chamber ſtill meets with violent Oppoſition from a great Number of Tribunals who refuſe to acknowledge their Juriſdiction and Authority; thoſe particulary of Lyons, Amiens, Beauvois, and Rheims, have concluded that they neither could nor ought to do it.

Worms, Jan. 13. The Prince-Biſhop of Spire having impoſed a new Tax on the Villages of the Lower Alſace that belong to him, the Peaſants have taken up Arms, and have actually repulſed, with ſome Effuſion in Blood, two Detachments of French Troops which, at the Requeſt of that Prelate, had been ſent to reduce them.

Liſbon, Dec. 22. The King has reſolved to lay an Indulto of Two per Cent. on all Gold Coin and Bullion exported from this Kingdom, and to oblige Foreign Merchants, eſpecially Engliſh, to conform exactly to the Regulations that ſhall be preſcribed on this Head.

Madrid, Jan. 1. The Marquis de Crux, Governor of Ceuta, has diſpatched a Courier to the King, to acquaint his Majeſty, that the 17th of laſt Month, in the Night, ſix Companies of Grenadiers, and fourteen Picquets of the Garriſon of that Place, had made a Sally. The Detachment, being divided into three Bodies, under the Command of Don Joſeph de St. Juſt, Don Joſeph de Guever, and Don Mid'Ugalde, Colonels of the Regiments of Cordonna, Ceuta, and Navarre, attack'd the Camp of the Moors in three Places, and kill'd 120 of them. Some of the Moors ſet Fire to their Huts, and above 100 more periſhed in the Flames. On the Side of the Spaniards only a Serjeant of Grenadiers was ſlightly wounded. Our Men deſtroy'd Part of the Enemy's Works, and brought to Ceuta ſeven Women, fourteen Children, and 454 Head of Cattle.

Hague, Jan. 23. Some private Letters from Spain ſay, that the Inquiſition have diſcovered a great Number of Mohammedans, and by Permiſſion of the King, have ſentenced them to be tranſported to America, where they are to work in the Mines during Life. Our Letters from Italy give ſome Hopes that the Troubles in Corſica will at length have an End. They write from Rouen, that through the wiſe Precautions of the Parliament, and through the Bleſſings of Almighty God, an entire Stop has been put to the Epidemic Diſtemper which reigned there.

Venice, Jan. 4. 'Tis ſaid a Miniſter will be ſent to the Hague, to improve the good Underſtanding which ſubſiſts between this Republick and that of the United Provinces, to compliment the Prince Stadtholder upon his Acceſſion to that Dignity, and to ſettle ſome Points of Commerce relating to the free Port which is going to be eſtabliſhed in this Country. It is not yet known who will be charged with this agreeable Commiſſion, and the more ſo as great Reſpect is preſerved here for the State of the United Provinces; the Services rendered by it to this Republick in the Times of Difficulty will never be forgotten, that particularly in the Year 1617, when the Dutch Fleet ſuccoured Venice with a Body of 4000 Men, under the Command of John de Naſſau, of the illuſtrious Houſe of Orange.

Paris A la-main, Jan. 14. The Chatelet continues ſitting, and the Return of the Parliament is as much talked of as ever.

We learn from Genoa, that the Rebels in Corſica continue greatly enraged againſt the Genoeſe, and have determined to form themſelves into two conſiderable Bodies, one of which is to go into Balagne, and the other into the Province of Nebbio, in order, either by fair Means or foul, to bring over to their Party the Families that have left it; and to endeavour to reconcile the Minds of the People, that they may unite in the Protection of their Country againſt any Attempts which the Genoeſe may make to oppreſs them, ever perſiſting in their Reſolution to be eternally at War with the Republick, till the ſeven principal Perſons concerned in the Murder of their General, Gaffori, are delivered up to them.

Naples, Jan. 1. Orders are iſſued for raiſing ſix new Battalions; which will augment our Army to between 44 and 45000 Men; 30,000 of which Number will be kept in Readineſs to march where ever Occaſion may require.

Naples, Jan. 3. Sir James Gray, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Great-Britain, had a few Days ago a private Audience of our Sovereign, and preſented his Credentials; ſince which he has had a Conference with the Marquis Fogliani, Secretary of State, to whom he declared, That his Britannick Majeſty being extremely deſirous to cement the good Underſtanding between him and the Crown of the Two Sicilies for the Advantage of their reſpective Subjects, had accepted the Propoſal made by the Prince de San Severino, the King's Miniſter at London, for a Treaty of Commerce between the two Courts; and that he was charged with Inſtructions relative to this Point, as well as to the Grand Object of preſerving Peace in Italy.

Rome, Jan. 5. Some Corſicans who had a Hand in the Murder of Gaffori, are arrived here, and relate ſtrange Stories concerning the Motives and Conduct of themſelves and their Accomplices: Among other Things they give us to underſtand, that Gaffori's own Brother was bribed by the Genoeſe to diſpatch him, and that the Reward of his Parricide was to be a Penſion of two thouſand Livres.

Leghorn, Jan. 5. We have Advice from Tunis that there are eighteen Chebecks, or armed Barks, at Sea from that Port, the leaſt of which carries 100 Men.

Genoa, Jan. 5. The Maſter of a Pink arrived here from Barcelona reports, that two Days before he ſail'd a great Firing was heard at Sea; and as they had Intelligence that nine Algerine Chebecks were on the Coaſt, the Marquis de la Mina, Captain General of the Province, immediately ordered three Men of War, one of 70, and two of 60 Guns, who had juſt entered the Harbour, to put to Sea again; and that theſe Ships having ſteered to that Part from whence the Noiſe came, the Firing became much briſker, and continued from Three in the Afternoon till next Morning, without their being able to learn the Iſſue of it. Another Maſter of a Veſſel who is juſt arrived, tells us that three of the Chebecks were ſunk, and two taken; and that the others eſcaped with much Difficulty.

Paris, Jan. 18. It is confidently aſſured that the Members of the Parliament of Paris are ordered to aſſemble at Soiſſons; and it is generally reported that they will return to this City at Candlemas. A Curate whom the Parliament of Provence had baniſhed out of their Juriſdiction, having returned to his Cure, was ordered to be ſent to the Galleys. The Prieſt preſented a Petition to the Royal Chamber, praying that this Affair might be heard before them: But the Chamber rejected it, referring him to the Parliament of Provence.

Genoa, Jan. 4. We have Advice from the Coaſt of Barbary that the Plague is quite ceaſed at Algiers.

Milan, Jan. 10. Yeſterday in the Evening the Duke of Modena arrived in this City, by the Light of Flambeaux, and this Day he took Poſſeſſion of the Adminiſtration of the Government of Auſtrian Lombardy, in the Name of the Archduke Peter Leopold.

Dreſden, Jan. 14. An Expreſs from Vienna brings Advice of a new Negotiation ſet on Foot there by the Britiſh Miniſter, which is to ſerve as a Baſis to that which Sir Hanbury Williams will renew on his Return.

Bruſſels, Jan. 17. We learn from Metz, that by Order of the Court, Monſieur the Intendant of the three Biſhopricks, had iſſued Circular Letters to the ſeveral Chiefs and Syndicks of each reſpective City, Town and Village within their Juriſdiction, to ſend to him within the Courſe of this Month, an exact Account of the Number of Horſes which are to be found in their reſpective Diſtricts. 'Tis ſaid that the Intendants of many other Provinces have iſſued the like Orders. The Report in ſome of the Frontier Towns of France is, that ſeveral Regiments garriſoned in Flanders and Alſace, will begin to move towards Dauphiny and Provence in March next.

Dublin, Jan. 15. Laſt Saturday, about Four a Clock in the Afternoon, the Ship Beaver, John Hamilton, Commander, laden with Flax-ſeed, Rum, and Pipe-ſtaves, about 200 Tons Burthen, from Philadelphia for this Port, ſtruck on the Banks of Malahide, by the Maſter's miſtaking, in the thick bad Weather, Lambay-Iſland for the Hill of Houth; and would probably have continued there till ſhe beat to Pieces, but for the great Care of Mr. John Adamſon, Surveyor of Malahide, who immediately went on board, ſupplied the Maſter with the whole Crew of the King's Barge, and hired another Sett of Men for him on Shore, by which Means ſhe was got ſafe off.

January 19. Yeſterday the Right Hon. Thomas Carter, Eſq; Maſter of the Rolls, Anthony Malone, Eſq; his Majeſty's Prime Serjeant at Law, and Michael O Brian Dirkes, Eſq; Quarter Maſter and Barrack Maſter General, were diſmiſſed from their Employments; and Bellingham Boyle Eſq; Regiſter of the Prerogative Court, had his Penſion ſtopt.

LONDON.

Dec. 22. Yeſterday there was a Court at St. James's and a Drawing Room, at which were preſent a great Number of Nobility and Gentry, among whom was the Hon. George Clinton, Eſq; late Governor of New-York, who was received by his Majeſty and the Royal Family with great Approbation.

Jan. 3. 'Tis reported that the Right Hon. the Earl of Cheſterfield will be deſired to accept of the Poſt of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Our laſt Letters from Hamburgh inform us, that it was currently reported there the Conferences between the Swediſh and Ruſſian Miniſters, in reſpect to the Limits of their Dominions in Finland, are are interrupted, and that there were some Apprehensions of a Misunderstanding arising thereupon between the Courts of Petersburgh and Stockholm.

We hear that the Business of the noble Earl, who lately came from Ireland, was to have a private Audience of his M-------y, in order to lay before him the true State of Affairs in that Kingdom, and to assure him of their unalterable Zeal and Attachment both to his Royal Person and Family.

Jan. 5. The Vessel lost off Boulogne, laden with Pitch and Tar, proves to be the Dove, Airson, from Carolina.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris, Dec. 22.

"The Rumours that have for some Time prevailed, in regard to a new Alliance in the North, are thought not to be without some Foundation, tho' it is generally believed this Crown will enter into none but defensive Engagements, and avoid taking any Share unless their Allies should be attacked. Some of our Politicians are of Opinion, that the Treaty of Commerce with Holland will be very speedily, if it is not already, brought upon the Carpet, and perhaps with Effect."

Jan. 8. We are informed that the following Men of War will speedily sail for the East-Indies, viz. the Kent, Salisbury, Eagle, Bristol, a 20 Gun Ship, and a Sloop.

They write from Moscow, that secret Councils of State are more frequent than ever, and that from a Variety of Incidents it was collected that something of great Importance is upon the Carpet, and the Removal of the Court postponed till May.

Our Correspondents at Vienna assure us, that in Consequence of the Modena Treaty, a Negotiation of a very interesting Nature has been lately set on Foot with the Court of Naples, and that the Ministers of their Imperial Majesties scarce make a Doubt of their fixing the System of Italy upon a solid and permanent Foundation.

They write from Paris, that they talk much there of a War, and that Orders have been actually sent to Flanders to hold a considerable Force ready to march into Languedoc the latter End of February, or the Beginning of the Month following.

A few Days since some Expresses were sent for Jamaica, which, it is said, contain some fresh Instructions to the Governor, in regard to the Treatment of the Guarda Costas.

Jan. 10. Letters from Madrid advise, that when the Spanish Ministry are talked to about Captures illegally made by the Guarda Costas, they immediately answer, that full Satisfaction shall be given for every illegal Procedure; but when any Methods are proposed to prevent such Captures for the future, they intimate, that the Care of preventing a contraband Trade with their Settlements in the West-Indies, must be left to them.

Yesterday it was agreed to put into Commission seven Ships of the Line, to be got ready early in the Spring, which Ships will be named next Board Day.

Jan. 15. It is said both Houses of Parliament will be dissolved on Thursday the 18th of April next, with a most gracious Speech from the Throne, and Writs issued out to elect a new Parliament, the Writs to be returnable on Thursday the 19th of June.

By a private Letter from Algiers it appears that the Dey is resolved to persist in the ill Treatment given to the French Nation, since upon hearing that the Consul was coming to complain of the Death of the Captain, he sent him Word he might if he had a Mind to meet with the same Usage. He is said to have confiscated an English Ship, under Pretence of carrying on a clandestine Trade; but in Reality, upon Information that she had a considerable Sum of ready Money on board.

Our Correspondent at Paris acquaints us, that an Express from Madrid has brought some News, which from the Bustle it created at Court, is supposed to be of the last Importance; that several Persons, who are known to be Contractors for Forage, Provisions, and other Requisites for Armies and Garrisons, have proceeded lately, with the greatest Privacy, into Italy; and that the present State of Foreign Affairs is looked upon as an unanswerable Reason for recalling the Parliament.

It is said that some Expresses, lately arrived from the Court of Spain, contain many Complaints against the Governors of some Places in the West-Indies, for detaining some of the Subjects belonging to that Crown, and their Goods, under Pretence of their being Pirates.

The Design of sending two Ships and a Sloop of War this Summer to discover the North-West Passage, is for some particular Reasons laid aside for the present.

Extract of a Letter from Gosport, dated Jan. 13.

"On Thursday Evening arrived at Spithead his Majesty's Ship Torrington, from Nova-Scotia, but last from Lisbon, having on board Col. Hopson, the Governor of Nova-Scotia; at his going on Shore he was saluted with several Guns from the said Ship."

Jan. 17. We hear from Dublin, that on the 2d Instant Arthur Jones Nevil, Esq; was heard by Counsel, before the Privy-Council, against the Bill for subjecting his Estate to make good all Contracts for building, re building and repairing the Barracks according to the Resolutions of the House of Commons. And on the 4th he was heard again in the same Manner, when the Bill was laid aside.

Jan. 19. Yesterday it was reported that a Sickness or Plague is broke out in the Province of Normandy; and that strict Orders have been sent to the proper Officers on our Coasts, with Regard to their Conduct towards all Vessels coming from France.

Jan 22. By the Death of Edward Trelawny, Esq; late Governor of Jamaica (on Wednesday last at Hungerford-Park, of an Inflammation in his Bowels, in his 54th Year) the Command of the Regiment of Foot in that Island, of which he was Colonel, is vacant.

By Letters from Paris we are assured, that the epidemical Distemper which now rages in Normandy is a Miliary Fever; that the poor People are most severely attacked with it; and that Six Thousand of the French Troops are ordered to draw Lines of Circumvallation, to prevent, if possible, the Contagion spreading. It is to be wished some Care would be taken here, to prevent the Smugglers bringing it over to the Coasts of Hampshire, Sussex and Kent.

We hear that some considerable Military Promotions will soon take Place, and that the ensuing Summer a Camp will be formed, but upon what Spot is not yet determined.

Extract of a Letter from Ferrol, Nov. 20.

"The following is the State of the Spanish Navy at this Port, which I hope will be an Amusement to yourself and Friends: The Harbour is very extensive, being 30 Miles in Circumference, and its Entrance so narrow that a Cable will reach from one Side to the other, and is strongly fortified. You'll observe that in all the King's Yards in Spain the Constructors in every Class are English, and the Ships built in the English Taste. Here are 12 Ships on the Stocks, and four Sail launched, all of 64 Guns, but as large as our 80 or 90 Gun Ships; for they have 150 Feet Keel, and 50 Feet extreme Breadth; but the greatest Work is their inclosing Part of this Harbour into a Bason to lay the Ships up in, with a Mould, or Quay, which Foundation is laid in five Fathom of Water, above a Mile in Length, and 40 Yards broad; upon this Quay, on the Inside, are Storehouses; on the Outside a Line of Defence, that will mount a great Number of Cannon, and when compleated will be the greatest Work of the Kind in Europe; 12000 Men are employed on these Works; the Master Attendant here is acquainted with you, his Name is H---------t, formerly a Boatswain in our Service."

Jan. 24. Impress Warrants having been issued by the Lords of the Admiralty, the Boats belonging to the several Guard-Ships, &c. came up the River on Tuesday, and carried off about a thousand Seamen from on board the Merchants Ships in the River. And we hear they have got in all 3000 Men within these two Days, to man the Squadron intended, it is said, for the East-Indies, on board of which a Regiment of Foot will be embarked.

Yesterday, in several Parts of the Suburbs, proper Officers beat up for Volunteers.

Four Men, that belonged to a Collier, which lay off Limehouse, on a Press-Gang boarding their Ship, jump'd overboard, and were all drowned.

We have an Account that War has been declared in the East-Indies, between the Natives in the Interest of the English, and those of the French. The Manner of doing it, we are inform'd, is, by sending an Axe from one Party to the other.

It is reported, that a considerable Fleet will sail the ensuing Summer for the Mediterranean.

Upon some Dispatches received on Saturday last, Press Warrants were issued; but Mr. White, the Messenger, being robbed in Deptford-Road of the Pacquet, prevented their coming out till Tuesday, which gave Time and Opportunity for many able Hands to withdraw themselves from Rotherhithe, &c.

The Press was so warm on Tuesday Evening and Yesterday, that they took Hands out of outward-bound Vessels.

We hear that Sir Edward Hawke, Knight of the Bath, will command a Squadron of Men of War to the East-Indies, on an Expedition of great Importance.

Extract of a Letter from Gosport, Jan. 21.

"Yesterday Morning his Majesty's Ships Torrington, and St. Albans, were getting under Sail for Plymouth, but the Wind coming foul, they moor'd again.

"The same Day the Right Hon. Sir Edward Hawke, Vice-Admiral of the Blue, made Signals from the terrible Man of War for a Boat with an Officer from the following Ships, viz. Monarch, Capt. Martin; Captain, Capt. Catford; and Tyger, Capt. Marshal; when the Officers came on board they received Orders to get their respective Ships with all Expedition ready for the Sea, in Pursuance of which the Ships Companies began unrigging their Topmasts."

January 26. Letters from Frankfort tell us, that the Elector Palatine's Journey to Augsbourg will not take Place this Year; nor are there any Hopes that the Imperial Court will go thither: This, with some other Indications equally strong, seem to confirm, say these Letters, that the King of Great-Britain's Tour to Germany, and the Affair of the Election of the King of the Romans will be laid aside for this Year.

There is a Picquet Guard of 100 Men order'd to be in Readiness at the Tower, upon a Minute's Warning, to quell any Disturbance that may happen on Account of the Press for Seamen.

It is said that our Court has demanded a categorical Answer from that of Versailles, concerning the Destination of the French Men of War sent to the East-Indies.

The Hon. the East-India Company have ordered their Ships that were intended for Bombay, to go to Fort St. George.

The Imperial Court has given Orders for compleating all the Regiments in its Service against the first of May. A great Number of Cannon, cast at Vienna, have been sent by Water to Olmutz.

Wednesday Night at Ten a Clock, a Cabinet Council was held at St. James's, which did not break up till Four the next Morning, after which Dispatches were sent from the Secretaries Office to the Earl of Albemarle at Paris.

Thursday Sir Edward Hawke received his Commission, appointing him Commander in Chief of a Fleet consisting of ten Ships of the Line, and two of forty Guns, three of twenty, and four Sloops designed for the East-Indies.

At the same Time their Lordships ordered the Royal Sovereign and Britannia Men of War, both first Rates at the Nore, to be as Hospital Ships, and receive all impressed Men, to man the Fleet for the above Expedition.

We hear that General Skelton's Regiment of Foot will be ordered on board the Fleet bound for the East-Indies.

Notwithstanding the Press Warrants were so privately delivered out, and so suddenly executed, we are informed, the Sussex Coasters were previously provided with Protections.

Jan. 31. They write from Paris, that a Proposal is talked of there for sending Commissioners to Dunkirk from England, France and Holland, in order to take proper Inspection of the Works of that Port, and to agree upon what Condition they are to remain in, so that all Complaints in regard to Non-Observation of Treaties may be obviated.

A large Quantity of Naval Stores are ordered to be shipped for Gibraltar and Port-Mahon.

Two Vessels are fitting out in order to carry the Transports in Newgate and the New Goal to his Majesty's American Colonies.

It was the Saying of a French Minister, To take from the Parliament the Power of Remonstrating, is the same Thing as to pull out one of the King's Eyes. It is thought this has been whisper'd at Versailles, and that the Clergy, after all that they have done will be obliged to desist from their Operation.

Letters from Dublin advise, that the Levees of the four Gentlemen lately discarded, who were all Members of Parliament, were crouded with Persons of the highest Distinction the Day after their Dismission. It was computed that there could not be less than 120 Coaches attending at the House of Anthony Malone, Esq; to compliment him on his Dismission. The Monday following being the first Essoign Day in Hilary Term, certain eminent Lawyers appeared in common Bar Gowns. It is rumoured that several other Persons will be turned out of their Employments.

'Tis said the Italian Infantry are to be compleat in March, when his Catholick Majesty will be enabled to march an Army of 30,000 Men upon an Emergency.

The Master of a Vessel arrived at Leghorn from Algiers, reports, that the French Consul and all those of his Nation had received Orders to leave Algiers; and that a Rupture with France was looked upon as inevitable.

Letters received Yesterday from Paris advise, the greatest Diligence is used in fitting out the Men of War in the Harbour of Toulon; and that several Regiments are on their March to Provence.

We learn from Madrid that the Spanish Court has received Advice from the Commissioner of the Navy at St. Andero, that the three 70 Gun Ships, built at that Port, were safely launched; and that three others of the same Size would be immediately put upon the Stocks.

The following Men of War are, we hear, ordered for the East-Indies, under the Command of Rear Admiral Watson and Commodore Pocock, viz. The Culloden and Cumberland of 74 Guns, the Kent of 64, Eagle of 60, Bristol and Salisbury of 50, Bridgewater of 24, and the King's Fishing Sloop.

ANNAPOLIS, March 14.

Letters from Messieurs Trent, and Gist, to Major Washington, of Virginia, give some Account of their Situation near the Obio. The first Letter is dated Feb. 19, at Yaughyaughgany big Bottom. The 17*th Mr. Trent arrived at the Forks of Monongohela (from the Mouth of Red Stone Creek, where he has built a strong Store House) and met Mr. Gist, and several Others: In two or three Days they expected down all the People, and as soon as they came were to lay the Foundation of the Fort, expecting to make out for that Purpose about* 70 or 80 Men. The Indians were to join them, and make them strong. They requested him (Major Washington) to march out to them with all possible Expedition. They acquaint him, that Monsieur La Force had made a Speech to some of our Indians and told them, that neither they nor the English there, would see the Sun above 20 Days longer; 13 of the Days being then to come: By what Mr. Croghan could learn from an Indian in the French Interest, they might expect 400 French down in that Time: A Messenger sent from the French Fort had Letters for the Commanders of the other Forts to march immediately and join them, in order to cut off our Indians and Whites, and some French Indians were likewise expected to join them: When La Force had made his Speech to the Indians, they sent a String of Wampum to Mr. Croghan, to desire him to hurry the English to come, for that they expected soon to be attack'd, and pressed hard to come and join them; for they want Necessaries and Assistance, and then would strike: They farther write that 600 French and Indians were gone against the lower Shawanese Town, to cut off the Shawanese; 200 Ottaways and Chipawas came to Mushingum, and demanded the White People there, and shewed them the French Hatchet; the Wayondotts, tho' not above 30 Men, refused to let them kill them in their Town; but they expected every Day to hear they had cut off the Whites, and likewise the Wayondotts. The other Letter is dated at Monongahela, Feb. 23. Mr. Gist writes, "An Indian, who was taken Prisoner from the Chickasaws, by the Six Nations some Years ago, has been this Year to see his Friends there; in his Passage up the Ohio, fell in with a Body of near 400 French coming up the River; he parted with them below the Falls, and then came in Company with 10 of them that were sent up to treat with the Shawanese at the lower Town; on their Arrival there, the English Traders had agreed to make Prisoners of them, but the French getting Intelligence from some Indians, they fled away in the Night without discovering their Business: We have also News of 600 French and Indians, gone down to fall on the Shawanese, if they will not admit the lower Army to pass up the River to join that above; it would therefore be prudent to let the Governor know this, perhaps he might send a Number of Cherokees to join the Shawanese at the lower Town, and defeat them, to prevent their joining those above. Pray, send a Line by Mr. Stewart, and let us know the exact Time you will be here, that we may speak Truth in all we say to our Friends."

We hear from Virginia, that they go on very briskly in raising Men, and that 500, under proper Officers, will be soon ready to march from Alexandria.

We have just now heard, that Capt. Spencer is arrived in Patuxent from London; and that he brings News of the Loss of Capt. Gabriel Lafund (who sail'd from hence, the Beginning of November for London) on his Passage home, and that only Two of the People were saved, Mr. Rowland Carnan, and Six Germans, went Passengers in the Ship.

March 21.

At our County Court, last Week, a Negroe Man was tried and condemned for Horse Stealing, and is to be executed on Wednesday next.

We have just now received Intelligence from the Westward, of 400 French being come down from the Lakes, 100 of which, stay'd above Mushingum, and the other 300 went down to the lower Shanoah-Town; they have demanded the English Traders that are there (about 20 in Number) to be delivered up to them, which the Shanoahs have refused to do, and have sent up for the Catawas, to come to their Assistance. These 400 French expect to be join'd by 400 more, as soon as they come down from the Lakes. There are 22 French in the Loggs-Town, who about 5 Weeks ago, held a Council with the Indians; in which they told them, That as they had determined not to make their Peace with them, but had done it with their Brothers the English, they might expect to be struck, and that their Brothers the English should see the Sun but 20 Days, and then they would destroy all the Indians: Upon which Monocatoocha took his Tommahawk out of his Bosom, and said, You have often deceived us, but now you tell us "You will strike our Brothers the English," we believe you speak the Truth, come on, we are ready for you, and will stand by, and join our Brothers against you.

BOSTON, March 11.

Last Monday Morning came to Town from Martha's Vineyard Capt. Fortesque Vernon, Commander of a Brigantine, bound from South-Carolina to this Port, and his Mate, Mr. William Harris: By him we are informed, that on Tuesday, the 19th of last Month they had violent Gales of Wind, and a high Sea, and being off Noman's Island, near Martha's Vineyard, they were, in the Night, drove among the Rocks at the East End of that Island, and the hinder Part of the Vessel sinking, all the People on board, being 7 in Number, betook themselves to the Fore-part of her, were there remained till the next Morning in a very distressed and dangerous Condition, the Weather being very cold, and at that Time almost broke to Pieces; but perceiving they were call'd to by some Boys from the Island, one of the Men strip'd himself and attempted to swim to the Shore; but the Sea being boisterous he could not attain it, and therefore endeavoured to return to the Vessel, but in the Attempt was drowned: The rest expecting every Moment to perish got in the Boat, which was soon fill'd by the Waves, and set them all adrift among the Rocks; but with great Difficulty, and by the Assistance of Mr. Manter (who lives on the Island) seven of them got ashore, in a very poor, feeble Condition; but being furnished with warm Beds and Cloaths, they recovered their Strength in a good Measure.---The others were drowned.

Last Thursday, at the Court of Assize, held here for the County of Suffolk, came on the Trial of George Kelley, alias Willson Welch, indicted for the Murder of Darby O Brian, in November last, by stabbing and cutting him in the Belly, so that he soon after died, as has been mentioned in some of our former Papers; of which the Jury found him guilty: And we hear that he has since not only confessed this Crime, but also several others which he has been concerned in from Time to Time.

NEW-YORK, March 25.

A large Quantity of Counterfeit British Halfpence was seiz'd in this City on Tuesday Morning last, by the Surveyor and Searcher of his Majesty's Customs.

Capt. Kip from St. Thomas informs us, that when he was at St. Eustatia, the Store of Mr. Frederick of that Island was broke open, and robb'd by some Frenchmen, of Goods to the Amount of £ 500, but on diligent Search, the greatest Part were again found, and nine of the Frenchmen, who were suspected to be concern'd, apprehended and committed to Goal.

Saturday Evening last Capt. Philipson arriv'd here in 37 Days from Madeira; who advises, that Captain Devereaux of this Port sail'd from that Island three Days before him; and that Capt. Bolitho, of this for Philadelphia, was to sail in two Days after him.

April 1. Capt. Kendrick from Bristol, met with exceeding bad Weather on his Voyage hither: On the 21st of February, Francis Healey, his Mate, in setting a Studden-Sail, fell over-board, and was drown'd; and on the 2d ultimo, the Sea running prodigious high, he carried away his Boltsprit and Head, and was in imminent Danger, expecting to founder every Moment.

On the 7th ult. a Sloop belonging to Norwalk in New-England bound in from the West-Indies, was cast away at Barnagat; but the People, and some of the Cargo, 'tis said, are saved.

PHILADELPHIA, April 4.

From the publick Papers, and private Letters, we have collected the Arrivals of the following Veſſels at the different Ports underneath, viz.

From MARYLAND. The Triſby, Knell, and Fanny, Bird, at Briſtol: Three Brothers, Hoſkins, at Combe: Windſor, Goad, at Liverpool: And Newall, Montgomery, at Dover.

From NEW-ENGLAND. The John and James, Rich, and Diamond, Kirkwood, at Deal; Catherine, Robinſon, and Betty, Salmon, at Plymouth; Lilly, Montgomery, at the Iſle of Man; and Charming Sally, Auſtin, at Falmouth, all from Boſton.------Starr, from New-London, at Scilly: Induſtry, Ruſſell, at Alicant; Elizabeth, Neale, at Dover; Greyhound, Bourke, Minerva, James, and Rebecca, Davis, at Bilboa, from New-England: American Jefferſon, from Marblehead.

From NEW-YORK. The Hope, Goff, at Deal: Henry, Stewart, at Belfaſt: ----- Levingſton, and ----- Miller, at London.

From PHILADELPHIA. The Sarah, Mitchell, and Beulah, Ritchie, at London: Fame, Baker, Ruby, Dings, Endeavour, Mackenzie, and George, Macnamara, at Briſtol: Hope, Glentworth, at Cork: Happy Return, Mitchell, at Londonderry: Grizzie, Camron, at Newry: Beaver, Hamilton, and Catherine, Arthur, at Dublin: And ----- Hatton, at Liſbon.

In a Letter from Briſtol, of the ſixth of February, Mention is made of the Natives in the Eaſt-Indies having taken Pondicherry from the French: And that Governor Cornwallis, or Thomas Pitts, Eſq; would have the Government of New-York.

By Captain Southcott we learn, that a Veſſel had ſailed two Days before him for this Place, and that two more were to ſail ſoon after him: And that on his Paſſage, he ſpoke with the Snow Prince of Wales, from New-York for Dublin in Lat. 47, 47, and Longitude 25, 30, Weſt from London.

From Liſbon there is Advice, that there happened a violent Storm in the Streights on the 19th of January laſt, by which they had heard of the Loſs of about thirty Sail of Veſſels: And that a few Days before our Veſſels ſailed, two Ships were loſt on Liſbon Bar, an Engliſh and a Frenchman.

Captain Dowers on his Paſſage ſpoke with a Ship from Bermuda to South-Carolina.

Captain Maſchet, in a New-York Brigantine, bound to London, is loſt on the Iſle of Wight; the People ſaved.

Captain Middleton, from Bermuda, informs us, that Captain Langdon, of the Ship Jacob of New-York, bound to the Bay of Honduras, foundered on the Paſſage; and that the Crew took to the Boat, and got ſafe to Bermuda, after being twenty Days at Sea, and their Water juſt gone as they came in.

Capt. Robinſon from Anguilla, ſpoke with Capt. Rogers, of this Port, inward bound from Jamaica, about 15 Leagues from the Capes.

Extract of a Letter from Annapolis, March 25, 1754.

"We have Advice of the Crew of a Sloop belonging to Mr. Creagh, of this Place, turning Pyrates in our Bay. There were a Portugueze, and two Convicts on board, who, beyond Doubt, have murdered the Captain, William Curtis; and ſince, by Force, carried off a white Man, and a Negroe, whom they decoyed on board to bring them Bread, and then cut away the Boat, hoiſted Sail, and ſtood for the Capes, being then low down. One John Biſhop was on board, and ſaw one of the Men dreſſed in the Captain's Clothes. A Boat, well arm'd and mann'd, ſailed from hence Yeſterday in Queſt of her; and as Biſhop alarmed the Virginia Coaſt, we are in hopes they are by this Time taken."

Tueſday laſt the General Aſſembly of this Province met here.

For the ENTERTAINMENT of the CURIOUS,

ON Monday and Tueſday, and on Wedneſday and Thurſday, in Eaſter Week, it is propoſed to exhibit, in one of the Chambers of the Academy, a Courſe of Experiments on that new Branch of Natural Philoſophy called Electricity, to be accompanied with two methodical Lectures on the Nature and Properties of that wonderful Element. In the firſt Lecture will be exhibited Twenty, and in the ſecond Lecture Twenty-three, very curious and entertaining Experiments; by which, among other Things, will be demonſtrated, that the electrick Element, extracted from the Earth, by the Attrition of Glaſs and other electrick Subſtances, is the ſame with Lightning, and ſubject to the ſame Laws; and that Houſes, Ships, &c. may very eaſily be ſecured from being ever damaged by Lightning. The Circumſtances of the late unhappy Accident which befel Profeſſor Richman, at Peterſburgh, will alſo be explained, and be ſhewn to ſtrongly confirm the above Doctrine. And as ſome are apt to doubt the Lawfulneſs of endeavouring to guard againſt Lightning; it will be farther ſhewn, that the doing it, in the Manner propoſed, cannot poſſibly be chargeable with Preſumption, nor be inconſiſtent with any of the Principles either of Natural or Revealed Religion. The Lectures to begin preciſely at Eleven a Clock in the Forenoon. Tickets to be had at Mr. KINNERSLEY's Houſe, in Arch-ſtreet. Price Half a Dollar for each Lecture.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

MOSCOW, November 16.

UPON the Empreſs's receiving Advice of the Damages done by the late Fire at Archangel, her Imperial Majeſty ſent Orders to diſtribute a conſiderable Sum to the diſtreſſed Inhabitants, in order to put them in a Condition of re-building their Houſes, and to enable them, in ſome Meaſure, to purchaſe Neceſſaries for furniſhing them.

Bruſſels, Dec. 17. It is now aſſured, that the Conferences begun here for the Regulation of the Affairs relating to the Barrier and the new Tariff will be held again the next Month.

Hague, Dec. 16. Several of the principal Merchants of this State have lately had an Audience of her Royal Highneſs the Governante, and we hear, that the Subject of it was concerning the Execution of Means tending to amend and improve the Commerce of theſe Provinces. We can likewiſe aſſure the Publick, that every Thing which concerns the Free Port is in ſuch Manner advanced, that it will not be long before we ſee an Accompliſhment of it.

Madrid, Nov. 27. The Baron de Waſſenaer, Ambaſſador from the States General, has frequent Conferences with the Miniſtry, concerning the Meaſures which are neceſſary to be taken by the King, and their High Mightineſſes, in order to prevent all Acts of Hoſtility between their reſpective Subjects in the Weſt-Indies.

Paris, Dec. 29. Joanna Laſſeſe, died lately at a Village in Guſeme, in the Hundred and Sixth Year of her Age, without ever complaining of any Malady, except a ſlight Weakneſs in her Limbs.

About a Month before, died Peter du Bures, who lived within a Mile of the ſame Place, at the Age of One-Hundred and Fourteen, and who three Days before his Death killed a Hare, which he ſent to one of the principal Perſons in the Pariſh.

Naples, Dec. 4. It was imagined that the Rupture between our Court and the Order of St. John of Jeruſalem would have been ſoon accommodated, and that the Maltese would not have oppoſed his Majeſty's Pretenſions; but we are adviſed from Rome, that a Grand Council has been held in that Iſland, wherein it was unanimouſly reſolved not to ſuffer in any Shape the Viſit of the Archbiſhop of Syracuſe, and to repel Force by Force, rather than ſubmit to the pretended Rights of that Prelate. It is added, that the Grand Maſter, upon informing the Pope of this Reſolution, deſired his Holineſs to ſend from the Eccleſiaſtical State the Proviſions which the Iſland of Malta ſhould have occaſion for, and which it cannot now have from the Kingdom of Naples.

Bruſſels, Dec. 26. We are aſſured that the Conferences for definitively ſettling the Affairs of the Barrier, and new Tariff, will begin again the 9th of next Month.

Aleppo, Oct. 11. The Baſhaw of Damaſcus declared very lately to the Chriſtians of Bethlehem, that he would no longer tolerate the publick Exerciſe of their Religion, and ordered their Churches to be ſhut up; but the Franciſcans having carried him a conſiderable Sum of ready Money, thoſe Orders were revoked. The Baſhaw then marched with a Corpſe of Horſe and Foot into the Neighbourhood of Jeruſalem, where having for ſome Time ſubſiſted his Troops at the Expence of the Chriſtians, he poſted a Guard on the Church of St. Saviour, alledging, he had a Command from the Grand Signior to demoliſh it, and to erect a Moſque in its Place; but upon receiving five Purſes of Five-Hundred Dollars each, the Guard was withdrawn, and all Things left in their former State.

Liſbon, Nov. 30. The Engliſh Miniſter, Mr. Caſtres, has repreſented in very ſtrong Terms, to the King and to his Miniſters, the Grievances of the Britiſh Traders ſettled in Portugal; to which he received for Anſwer, that they were inclined to do every Thing for the Britiſh Merchants, conſiſtent with the Regulations the King had thought it neceſſary to make, and that he hoped thoſe, particularly, which regarded the Exportation of Gold Coin, would be better obſerved than in Times paſt. It is thought the Zeal of this Miniſter will be better reliſhed by his Countrymen than it has been at Court.

Hague, Jan. 6. We have received very melancholy Accounts from the Province of Overyſſel, of the Damage done by the Inundations which have lately happened there. From Deventer we learn, that two Dykes in that Neighbourhood giving Way, threw the Water of the Rhine into the River Yſſel with ſo great Rapidity, that great Part of the Lower Town at Deventer was laid under Water. The Inundation was alſo very great in the Country of Trent, and County of Zutphen, where the Water roſe very near as high as in 1741. They write from Zwoll, that the Environs of that Town were overflowed for above five Leagues, and that the Inundation came ſo ſuddenly, that a great many People, not having Time to get away, were drowned in their own Houſes, and great Numbers of Cattle have likewiſe been loſt.

Bruſſels, Dec. 31. By the Accounts which the Clergy have been obliged to deliver of their Eſtates, purſuant to a late Ordinance of the Empreſs-Queen, it appears, that out of 28000 Acres of Land, which is the whole Extent of the Auſtrian Hainault, the Clergy alone are poſſeſſed of 20,000.

Moſcow, Dec. 10. His Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty having notified by a Letter the Birth of the Duke of Aquitain, her Imperial Majeſty has tranſmitted an Anſwer, in her own Hand, conceived in the moſt polite Terms, and in which her Imperial Majeſty expreſſes with how great Pleaſure ſhe receives the News of an Event, which muſt be ſo ſatisfactory to the Moſt Chriſtian King.

Hague, Jan. 15. The Negociation which has been ſome Time on the Carpet between the King of Pruſſia, and the Princeſs Governante, as Mother and Tutreſs to the young Prince Stadtholder, for the Exchange of ſome Territory poſſeſſed by his Pruſſian Majeſty in this Country, is brought to a Concluſion, and a Convention actually ſigned on both Sides.

Moſcow, Dec. 27. The new Palace is finiſhed, and they are buſy in furniſhing it. The Senate has reſolved to make the Empreſs a Free Gift of 300,000 Rubles the Day ſhe goes into it. A Fire breaking out laſt Monday, in that Part of the Town, which is next the Moſca, ſeveral Houſes, Warehouſes, and Shops, were entirely conſumed.

Peterſburgh, Dec. 30. Great Part of the Empreſs's fine Seat at Czarkazelve, which is commonly called the Verſailles of Peterſburgh, has been reduced to Aſhes.

Ratiſbon, Jan. 17. The Miniſter from the Princes of Anhalt has delivered a Memorial to the Diet, by which theſe Princes have reſumed their Pretenſions to the Dutchy of Saxe Lauenbourgh, alledging, that the King of Great-Britain, as Elector of Hanover, has no lawful Title to that Dutchy. The above Memorial was no ſooner preſented than the Baron de Bahr, Miniſter from Hanover, delivered another to invalidate the Pretenſions of the Houſe of Anhalt, and ſtrengthen the Title of his Britannick Majeſty to the Dutchy of Saxe-Lauenbourgh.

Dublin, Jan. 8. When the Committee of the Houſe of Commons, appointed to enquire into the moſt effectual Means to increaſe the Tillage of the Kingdom, and to promote the planting Timber Trees, and the incloſing and preſerving of Wood, met laſt Wedneſday, many Schemes were laid before them, tending to promote theſe excellent Ends.

Of late we have had more diſmal Accounts from different Parts of the Kingdom, of greater Damages by the late Floods and Storms, than ever were known in the Memory of Man; Lands being overflown, People, Bridges, Houſes, and Trees being carried away by the Floods, and the Rivers and Roads rendered impaſſable.

LONDON.

Dec. 25. Some private Letters from Liſbon ſay, that a Rumour prevails there as if the ancient Order of Avis would be revived; or, at leaſt, the Revenues of it applied in order to form a Naval Force to be employed entirely againſt the Infidels; which, if carried into Execution, may very poſſibly encourage other Courts to take the like Method, and by the Means of Aſſociations keep Squadrons cruizing continually.

Our Correſpondent at Paris writes that the Counſellors and Attorneys are not near ſo idle as was expected from the late Revolutions in the Law; ſince, inſtead of practiſing in the Courts, the latter perſuade their Clients to ſubmit their Suits to Arbitration, by chooſing two Counſellors of a Side, and leaving them to name an Umpire; and that it is ſcarce credible how this new Method takes.

Dec. 27. The following is the Poſtſcript to a Dublin Paper, dated Dec. 18, 'The Grand Queſtion, which has ſo generally and deſervedly engroſſed the Attention of the Publick, after a long Debate, which laſted till Eleven laſt Night, was finally determined in a Manner highly agreeable to all Friends of Liberty and their Country. The Populace, who impatiently waited the important Deciſion, carried the Patriot Tribune to his Coach, and conducted their glorious Defender home, amidſt repeated Acclamations and the joyful Shouts of protected Liberty. The Sound of the Trumpet was not wanting to proclaim the glad Tidings, which, as in an Inſtant reached the moſt diſtant Parts of the City; Joy ſparkled in every honeſt Countenance, and gladened every honeſt Heart: The Blaze of more than 1000 Bonfires illuminated our Streets, which reſounded with the grateful Voice of Multitudes, whoſe Rejoicings were only ſuſpended by the Approach of Day. Such were the Expreſſions, by which a People, truly ſenſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings of Liberty, and the Merits of thoſe diſintereſted Champions, who, with a generous Diſregard of private Intereſt, ſo nobly contended for the Publick, teſtified their Gratitude and Approbation; and which might have done Honour to the antient Romans, thoſe Sons of Freedom, even when their Republick was at its higheſt Pitch of Glory and Perfection."

It is aſſerted, that upon the Earl of Albemarle's complaining that Numbers of Engliſh Perſons were daily trepan'd to France for Soldiers, and others ſometimes fraudulently enliſted there, proper Orders were given by the Court of France for preventing the like for the future under ſevere Penalties.

We hear that the cutting all the Croſs-Roads thro' the Highlands of Scotland will be compleated the enſuing Summer, and that Proviſion will be made next Seſſions of Parliament for keeping the ſame in Repair, and for building two Forts near the ſaid Roads, where Garriſon will be kept, for the better preventing any Trouble from that Quarter upon any Occaſion.

Dec. 29. Letters from Stockholm adviſe, that a Shepherd of Finland has diſcovered an Expedient to guard his Sheep from being ſeized by Wolves. He ſteeps the Excrement of that voracious Animal for ſome Time in Water, with which he afterwards rubs the Neck, Back, and Sides of each Sheep once a Year.

Jan. 3. Friday laſt, fell the greateſt Snow at Buxton and the Peak of Derby, that has been known in the Memory of Man, it continuing ſnowing for upwards of 18 Hours without ceaſing; that in many Places the Snow was ſix, eight, and ten Feet deep, by which the Roads are rendered unpaſſable, and ſome Hundreds of Sheep have been loſt.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris, Dec. 22.

"The Friends of the Parliament appear very numerous and very open, and as the Remonſtrances publiſh'd from Time to Time furniſh them with freſh Topicks, on which they argue warmly and copiouſly, more eſpecially ſince a Report prevails, that whenever the Parliament is ſo fortunate as to recover the good Graces of their Sovereign, they will make a thorough and ſevere Reform of all the Abuſes that in a long Courſe of Time have crept into the Profeſſion of the Law, ſo as to render the Diſtribution of Juſtice more ſpeedy and leſs expenſive to the Subject.

"It is believed, that the Journey of the Count de Monzon to Modena has not had the deſired Effect, notwithſtanding a profound Silence reigns in Regard to the Contents of his Serene Highneſs's Letter; but, from a Variety of Circumſtances, it is beyond Contradiction evident that the Miniſtry keeps a ſteady Attention to the Affairs of Italy, and are preparing for whatever may happen in that Country in the Spring."

Extract of a Letter from Utrecht, Dec. 26.

"What a Change Time has made in the ſame Order of Men! Eccleſiaſticks were ſo humble in the happy Times of the Infancy and Simplicity of Chriſtianity, that they hid themſelves in the Deſarts, to avoid being choſen Biſhops. Indeed there were then no ſuch Allurements annexed to Prelacy as now-a-days, nor could any Body in thoſe Times entertain Hopes of obtaining the dazzling Title of, Princes of the Church; of that Church, whoſe Founder they knew had no where to lay his Head. They therefore, in Imitation of that glorious Example, did not aim at wordly Advantages, and much leſs at vain Titles. We have juſt now ſeen ſixteen of theſe Spiritual Princes created by the Sovereign Pontiff at once, who, notwithſtanding the Reverence paid him by the Catholick Princes, it is aſſured, is in Danger of having War declared againſt him by his Sardinian Majeſty, for leaving M. Merlini, the Nuncio at Turin, out of his Promotion, to whom his Holineſs, it ſeems, had promiſed a Hat, and to fail in the Performance of a Promiſe is greatly unbecoming any Body, but eſpecially the Head of the Eccleſiaſticks, who cannot excuſe his Failure therein by the Maxim, that No Faith is to be kept with Hereticks, ſeeing the King of Sardinia is a ſteady Catholick, and all his Anceſtors have been as firm in that Profeſſion: He is alſo a King, and acknowledged as ſuch by all the crowned Heads in Europe; he ought therefore to be treated as ſuch by their Common Father. His Holineſs alledges, that by promoting M. Merlini, he ſhould have diſobliged the Courts of Poland and Naples, and the State of Venice. But the firſt and the laſt are conſidered at Rome as Republicks, and his Sicilian Majeſty, as a tributary King; and therefore not regarded and put upon the ſame Footing as other Kings; and it is not yet abſolutely determined, whether, at Rome, the Ambaſſadors of the Republicks, which have the Honour of the Sala Regia, would not diſpute Rank with thoſe of the King of the Two Sicilies. One may be almoſt aſſured, that his Sardinian Majeſty will reſent the Affront offered him, and there are untoward Examples, which he may poſſibly follow, particularly the Conduct of Don John, the Fifth, King of Portugal."

Jan. 12. We learn from Cadiz, that the Complaints of the Merchants are higher than ever, on account of their Advices from the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies, that their Markets being abſolutely overſtocked, European Commodities are become a perfect Drug, notwithſtanding which the Court has ordered all the Ships in the Road, that are laden, to ſail with the firſt fair Wind, under the Eſcort of two Men of War.

By Accounts taken at Calais, Newport, Boulogne, Dunkirk, &c. by Order of the reſpective Governors, not leſs than 4000 Engliſh Perſons arrived at theſe Places between the 25*th Day of December, and the* 1*ſt of January laſt; ſome by Advice of their Phyſicians, others to learn Faſhions, ſome the French Tongue, and a much greater Number to keep their Holidays, and to be inſtructed in the Vices of the French Nation.*

Jan. 15. Letters from Frankfort adviſe, that incredible Damage has been done in Germany by the overflowing of the Rivers Taubar, Kocher, Jaxt in Franconia, Fulda, and Unſtrut. The laſt of theſe riſing higher than it has ever been known to do in the Memory of Man, broke through ſome of the Dykes, and ſurmounted others; the Borough of Alten-Gotteren and the Environs were ſo ſuddenly overflowed, that the Inhabitants had ſcarce Time to ſave themſelves and their Cattle on an adjoining Eminence. The Torrent following them, their Danger became more preſſing, and their Deſtruction was inevitable, had it not been for the kind Aſſiſtance of their Neighbours, who faſtening Beams together, made a kind of Floats, on which they carried them Proviſions. Two hundred Houſes were ſo much damaged by the Deluge, that they will not be habitable this Winter. Abundance of the Cattle periſhed; the Corn, Hay, Straw, &c. are intirely ſpoiled, the new ſown Seed waſhed away, and the Lands covered with Slime.

We hear from Perth, that the River Tay was lock'd up with the late Froſt for ſome Weeks, which put a Stop to their Navigation. Friday the 28th ult. brought a Thaw with ſuch an Inundation, that for two or three Days Perth was a Peninſula; whoſe Ridges of fine Land have been torn away by the Rapidity of the River, and Bulwarks erected at a great Expence for the Preſervation of the Town were deſtroyed.

They have publiſhed lately at Moſcow a very full Account of the Family, Territories, Enterprizes, and Succeſſes, of the famous Prince Heraclius, who appears from thence to be the Son of a little Georgian Khan, or Chief of the Greek Religion, who is ſtill living; that his Exploits have been confined to his own Country, or to thoſe that border upon it; that he has always behaved with great Prudence and Bravery, but with Variety of Fortune; that about two Years ago he was totally defeated; that he has ſince reſtored his Army and his Affairs; but that it was never yet Fifteen Thouſand ſtrong; and that his attempting to raiſe himſelf to the Throne of Perſia was a mere idle Imputation of his Enemies, in order to raiſe a Confederacy againſt him.

Jan. 19. Private Advices from the Hague aſſure us, that ſeveral Princes of the Germanick Body have lately given Notice of the Oppoſition which they think themſelves obliged to make to the Election of a King of the Romans; and which they reſerve to themſelves the Right of making when the Motion for taking that Affair into Conſideration ſhall be made in the College of Princes. The ſame Advices add, that there will be ſeveral Armies encamped next Summer in Germany; and that the Ruſſian Troops which are at preſent cantoned in the conquered Provinces of that Empire, will alſo be aſſembled, and march in the Spring to Places where they may be at hand to act in Concert with the Forces of an allied Power. But theſe Letters, which enlarge much on military Operations, ſpeak very enigmatically of their real Ends. It is certain that Meaſures are ſo concerted in the private Convention between the Courts of Verſailles, Stockholm and Berlin, that they can mutually aſſiſt each other, as Occaſion ſhall require.

Jan. 22. The following Paſſage in the Letter which the Parliament of Aix in Provence lately ſent to the King, may ſerve to give our Readers an Idea of the Spirit with which that Court of Judicature have addreſſed their Sovereign. "That Magiſtrate (ſay they, ſpeaking of M. Eymar, Seneſchal of Forcalquier) recommendable by his Virtues and by his Piety, died in the Town where he adminiſter'd Juſtice in your Majeſty's Name, carrying to the Grave the Eſteem and Reſpect of his Fellow Citizens. He was, notwithſtanding, deprived of the Sacraments; Funeral Honours were denied him, and thoſe that paid him ſuch Honours were puniſhed; and yet he believed every Thing that is taught by the Church; but he could not comply ſo far as to make Profeſſion of a Dogma which the Church has not defined. In all other Parts of the Chriſtian World, the Sieur Eymar, tho' a Stranger, and unknown to them, explaining ſimply and clearly his Belief in Regard to all the Objects of our Faith, would have received the Sacraments of the Church; but in your Kingdom he has been ſtigmatized as a Heretick and Reprobate. Was this done by Virtue of any Eccleſiaſtick Law approved of by your Majeſty, or by an Eccleſiaſtick Judgment agreeable to the Maxims of the State? Not at all, Sire; it was done in Contempt of your Laws, in Prejudice of your Royal Word, and the ſolemn Treaty of which you are a Guarantee. To decide, that the Acceptance of the Bull Unigenitus may be required of every Chriſtian, as a neceſſary Mark of Catholicity, is, in Fact, to deſtroy all the Ordinances and Regulations made concerning this Matter, &c."

Jan. 26. As it is at preſent very evident, that even our Capital Puniſhments do not ſtrike ſufficient Terror, and as this may be, at leaſt in a great Meaſure, aſcribed to their Frequency, and as many have thought ſome Diſtinction ought to be made between the Puniſhment for Theft and Murder; might it not be highly ſerviceable to the Community, if a Method could be diſcovered, for confining and keeping to hard Labour (the propereſt Chaſtiſements for Idleneſs and Contempt of Laws) for a longer or ſhorter Time, according to the Nature of the Offence, ſuch kind of Criminals without

Trouble

Trouble or Expence?---The Whale Fiſhery ſeems to furniſh a proper Method for doing this. There are a great many Iſlands at ſome Diſtance from Spitzberghen, to which, if we think proper to claim it, we have an indiſputable Right, as having firſt diſcovered, long frequented, and given the Names by which they are known, to moſt of them. Some of theſe, particularly Cherry Iſland, have Lead, Copper and Coal Mines, afford prodigious Numbers of Seals and Sea Horſes, from whence vaſt Quantities of Oil may be made, and, in Proceſs of Time, other Advantages ariſe.

The laſt Letters from Ratiſbon adviſe, that the Inſtructions which his Pruſſian Majeſty has lately ſent to his Miniſter at the Dyet, relating to the Affair of Eaſt-Frieſland, are expreſſed in the ſtrongeſt Terms; and import not only that his Majeſty will never recede from his Rights and Pretenſions to the Sovereignty of that Province; but alſo that he will employ the Means which Providence has put into his Hands, to maintain Poſſeſſion of it, in caſe the Dyet ſhould, contrary to all Expectation, give a Decree in Prejudice of the juſt Claims which his Majeſty has clearly expoſed to all Europe. The Conſequences of this Affair are waited for with the greateſt Impatience, as his Britannick Majeſty (theſe Advices add) is alſo determined to make good his Pretenſions to Eaſt-Frieſland.

Private Letters from Paris ſeem to agree with the Notions they have at Naples, with regard to the Continuance of the Tranquility of Italy; the Men of War fitting out at Toulon, and the French Regiments marching towards Provence, being deſigned to fruſtrate the Advantages which the Court of Vienna hopes to reap from its Alliance with the Duke of Modena: Though ſome are of Opinion, that a Squadron may be ſent from Toulon to chaſtize the Algerines.

Advices from Stockholm intimate, that there is no Likelihood of ſeeing any deciſive Progreſs made in the Affair of the Limits of Finland till next Spring; the Swedes having already ſaid enough on that Head, and the Anſwers of the Ruſſians not being yet explicit enough to admit of a final Reply.

According to Advices from Vienna, they make no Doubt of fixing the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, in the Northern Alliance, and thereby defeating the Views of a certain German Potentate, whoſe Circumſtances induce him to lean upon France for Support, and who aims at the Honour of holding the Balance between Courts mightier than himſelf.

Jan. 31. By a private Letter from Stockholm, we have an Account of the Death of two very remarkable Perſons, Mr. John Bedoire, an eminent Banker and Merchant; and Mr. Guſtaaf Lithou, the Virgil of Sweden, with this ſingular Obſervation of their Succeſs in Life: The former, ſays he, left ſeveral Tons of Gold to his Heirs, and the latter ſeveral Hundreds of Debts that will never be paid; ſo it ſeems true Genius flouriſhes alike in all Countries.

Dublin, Dec. 29. Saturday, the 22d Inſtant, the Right Honourable Henry Boyle, Eſq; Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, at the Paſſing of ſome Bills, addreſſed His Grace in the following Speech.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

"The Support of His Majeſty's Government is ſo eſſential to the Happineſs and Security of his loyal and dutiful Subjects of this Kingdom, that the Commons have ſhewn, in all their Proceedings, the ſtricteſt Attention to the true and inſeparable Intereſts of both. The Unanimity and Diſpatch, with which they have raiſed the Supplies neceſſary for theſe great Ends, have been equal to the Importance of them, and moſt evidently prove their juſt Senſe of his Majeſty's paternal Care and Goodneſs, their determin'd Reſolution to contribute every Thing in their Power to maintain the Honour and Dignity of his Crown, and their inviolable Attachment to his Sacred Perſon and Royal Family. In Addition to theſe great Objects, which always demand their principal Attention, the Commons have not been unmindful of the publick Welfare in other Inſtances of national Conſideration; and it is with particular Pleaſure I mention the ſeaſonable Proviſion made for the Encouragement of that moſt valuable Branch of Trade, the Linen Manufacture; as alſo the Care taken for the Security of the Commerce of this Metropolis, ſo diſtinguiſhed for its known Attachment to his Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government.

To be the Repreſentative of ſo great and ſo good a Prince, is the higheſt Honour any Subject can aſpire to, and to imitate his Example the greateſt Glory: And from the Experience the Commons have had of your Grace's Attention to the Welfare of this Kingdom, they have not the leaſt Doubt of your Grace's making a faithful Repreſentation of their Proceedings, when you return into the Royal Preſence.

It is by their Command I now preſent to your Grace for the Royal Aſſent, a Bill, &c."

ANNAPOLIS, March 21.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, to his Friend in Maryland, dated Dec. 22, 1753.

"This Nation ſeems to be in a moſt perfect State of Peace and Tranquility, eſpecially ſince the Repeal of the late Act for Naturalizing foreign Jews, which, no doubt, you have heard much of abroad: That Act, which did not give the Jews much greater Privileges than they now enjoy (indeed it might have been a Step to greater) occaſioned a general Clamour amongſt the People throughout the Nation; and at the Meeting of the Parliament, inſtead of waiting to hear Petitions and Debates on the Subject, both Houſes ſeem'd to ſtrive who ſhould firſt propoſe the Repeal, for it was motion'd in both Houſes the firſt Day of their Meeting: And laſt Thurſday his Majeſty went up to the Houſe, and paſt the Repeal. In ſhort, it ſeems to be the Study at preſent of the Miniſters, as well as the King (who always made it his) to make the People eaſy and happy, which is attended with its natural Conſequence, that never was a King on the Throne more beloved, nor was there ever leſs Oppoſition to the Miniſtry known. At the approaching General Election there ſeems only to be a Struggle betwixt the Candidates, the Miniſtry don't interfere, the Names of Court and Country Intereſt, are no more made Uſe of; and it is ſaid, there are but ſix Boroughs in the Nation, where the old Parties of Whig and Tory ſubſiſt."

March 28. A Gentleman in Virginia writes to one in this Town, in a Poſtſcript to a Letter, dated March 20, I have juſt now had certain Advice, that the General Aſſembly of North-Carolina have voted Seven Thouſand Pounds on the preſent Occaſion.

Monday laſt one John Orrick, having taken up one John Oulton (a Convict Servant, who had run away from the Baltimore Iron Works, and bound him) after carrying him ſome Time, unbound him to let him eat; but the Villain having his Hands at Liberty, ſtabb'd Mr. Orrick in the Breaſt, and otherwiſe wounded him, ſo that his Life was deſpair'd of, and then made off.

Yeſterday the Negroe Fellow condemn'd at the laſt County Court for Horſe Stealing, was executed at the Gallows. He had the Character of being a great Rogue; having been ſold to ſix or ſeven different Maſters in a few Months.

April 4. We hear from St. Mary's County, that a few Weeks ago, one Widow Veſſels, about 30 or 35 Years of Age, was found murder'd at her Houſe near Clement's Bay, and is ſuppoſed to have been ſtrangled; but had many Wounds and Bruiſes about her. And about a Fortnight ago, a young Girl, 11 or 12 Years old, near the ſame Place, being ſent on an Errand, was found murder'd in the Woods; her Body had been cut with a Penknife, and otherwiſe uſed in ſuch an inhuman and barbarous Manner, as Decency forbids to mention: A Mulattoe Fellow, of a vile Character, was found waſhing himſelf at a Run of water, not far from the poor Girl's Body, and a Garter, Fellow to that on one of his Legs, was found lying by her; and he is taken up and committed to the Goal of that County, as the ſuppoſed vile Perpetrator of one (if not both) of thoſe two horrid Murders.

This Morning the Boat return'd, which was mention'd to be gone in Queſt of Mr. Creagh's Sloop; but has not ſeen or heard any Thing of her, and 'tis fear'd ſhe has put out to Sea.

BOSTON, March 25.

From Portſmouth in New-Hampſhire we have Advice, that laſt Wedneſday Night, a Number of armed Men, ſuppoſed Two or Three Hundred, came to the Priſon there, broke the Door to Pieces, and carried off two Men who had been confined about three Weeks, on a ſtrong Suſpicion of their having killed two of the Eaſtern Indians ſeveral Months ago.

April 1. We have very good Intelligence, that eight Thouſand Troops, with their Wives, and Children, were ſent from France to America, in the Year 1752, viz. Two Thouſand Five Hundred to Miſſiſippi, and Two Thouſand to St. Domingo, and that thoſe Troops are arrived at the ſeveral Places of their Deſtination.-----From this Intelligence, and the certain Accounts that we have of the Encroachments of the French both from Canada and Miſſiſippi, upon his Majeſty's Territories, back of the preſent Settlements of the Southern Colonies, the Forts they are building, their having engaged three large Tribes of Indians living upon the Lakes, to take up the Hatchet againſt the Engliſh, added to their Encroachments upon Nova-Scotia, and the new Forts they are building near Kennebeck River, within this Province, contrary to the moſt ſolemn Treaties, and all done ſince the late Peace; it is very eaſy to penetrate the Deſigns of the French, and without the Spirit of Prophecy to foretel, that if there is not a vigorous and united Oppoſition effectually to prevent it, they will, in a few Years, lay a ſolid and laſting Foundation, for making themſelves in Time Maſters of all America.

We hear from Rhode-Iſland, that at the Seſſions held at Newport the laſt Week, one Coggeſhall, and Averell, both belonging to Connecticut, were convicted of paſſing a Number of Counterfeit Bills (knowing them ſuch) in Imitation of the Sixteen Pound Bills of the late Emiſſion; and that agreeable to the Sentence of the ſaid Court, the ſaid Averell was on laſt Tueſday Se'ennight pillory'd, cropp'd, and branded, but that Coggeſhall's Puniſhment is put off until ſome time in May next.

NEW-YORK, April 8.

A Subſcription is now on Foot, and carried on with great Spirit, in order to raiſe Money for erecting and maintaining a publick Library in this City; and we hear that not leſs than 70 Gentlemen have already ſubſcribed Five Pounds Principal, and Ten Shillings per Annum, for that Purpoſe. We make no Doubt but a Scheme of this Nature, ſo well calculated for promoting Literature, will meet with due Encouragement from all who wiſh the Happineſs of the Riſing Generation.

Laſt Tueſday Morning £. 150, in Counterfeit Britiſh Half-pence, was ſeized in a Houſe in this City, by George Harriſon, Eſq; Surveyor and Searcher of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms. [Such Aſſiduity as this, in making two conſiderable Seizures within a Fortnight's Time, will, we truſt, be an effectual Step towards preventing the Importation of Counterfeit Copper Halfpence into this Province, ſo prejudicial to the Country in general, and the fair Trader in particular; and will, undoubtedly, reflect no leſs Honour on one ſo zealous for the Good of the Common Weal, than Diſhonour on the Perſon or Perſons who may at Times import them, contrary to the expreſs Words of the Act of Aſſembly of this Province, lately made and provided in that Behalf.]

AS publick ſeminaries of learning not only tend to promote the private welfare of the communities in which they are founded, but to advance the honour, the reputation, and the happineſs of a country in general; it is hoped, that all thoſe who would encourage the progreſs of the liberal ſciences, and are well-wiſhers to the propagation of chriſtianity in theſe parts of the world, will chearfully become adventurers here; and the more freely, conſidering the above ſcheme is ſo well calculated for the benefit of the proprietors of tickets, as not to have two blanks to a prize. Publick notice will be given of the preciſe time of putting the tickets into the boxes, that ſuch adventurers as are inclined, may be preſent when the ſame ſhall be done. The drawing to commence on the firſt Tueſday in June next, or ſooner if full, at the town of Stamford in Connecticut, under the inſpection of two juſtices of peace of the colony of Connecticut, and of two perſons who ſhall be appointed by the truſtees of the college of New-Jerſey. The publick will have fourteen days notice of the time of drawing. The managers are ſworn to the faithful diſcharge of the truſt repoſed in them, and have alſo given ſecurity for the ſame. The prizes will be publiſhed in the New-York and Pennſylvania Gazettes, and the money paid to the poſſeſſors of benefit tickets, as ſoon as the drawing is finiſhed. Tickets are to be had at the dwelling-houſes of Mr. John Lloyd, Ephraim Boſtwick, Eſq; and Dr. Nathaniel Hubbard, in the town of Stamford, in Connecticut, who are appointed managers. Tickets will alſo be ſold by Mr. David Vanhorne, in New-York; Samuel Woodruff, Eſq; in Elizabeth-town; Mr. Sergeant, treaſurer of the college of New-Jerſey, in Newark; John Stockton, Eſq; in Prince-town; the Rev. THE drawing to begin on the 24th day of June next, or ſooner, if ſooner full, in the preſence of at leaſt three of the managers, and as many of the adventurers as ſhall think fit to attend, and continue drawing till finiſhed.

A liſt of the prizes to be publiſhed in the publick papers as ſoon as the drawing is compleated, that the fortunate may know the fate of their tickets.

The money to be paid to the fortunate, as ſoon as the drawing is finiſhed, the ſum of Fifteen per Cent. being firſt deducted.

The managers appointed are Sebaſtine Neff, George Donnenhaver, Jacob Miller, Charles Hay, Jacob Beyerle, and Matthias Gainſele, who are to give bond, and be upon oath for the faithful diſcharge of their truſt.

The tickets will begin to be ſold by the managers, at their reſpective dwellings on Friday the 7th of September inſt.

We hope a deſign of this kind will meet with encouragement as the only motive that induced the ſociety to enter on ſuch a ſcheme, was their being thoroughly ſenſible of the diſadvantages they labour under, and the great neceſſity there is of a houſe in Germantown, for their miniſter to inſtruct thoſe children in reading and writing, whoſe parents are unable to give them ſuch education; and as the ſociety amongſt themſelves are unable to accompliſh ſuch an undertaking, were importuned to have recourſe to a lottery, in order to enable them to carry on the ſame, as it will tend to the publick good.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Since our laſt arrived the Captains Meſnard and Gibbon, from London, by whom we have the following Advices, viz.

PARIS A-La-MAIN, January 21.

THE Report of the approaching Return of the Parliament gains more Credit than ever: 'Tis even aſſured, that Letters de Cachet have been diſpatched to thoſe Members who were baniſhed to Places at the greateſt Diſtance, to cauſe them to return: That Lodgings are taken for others, and that the King will come and hold his Bed of Juſtice at Paris. The Biſhop of Toul is lately dead in his Dioceſe.

The following is the remaining Part of the Repreſentations of the Chatelet. Without having Recourſe to the Maxims of the Law, the Members of the Chatelet are indiſpenſably bound to inſiſt, that their Juriſdicton cannot ſuffer any Change or Alteration, without derogating from its Inſtitution: That the Company does not look upon the Regiſtry made the 20th of November laſt, as their Tranſaction, whereby they are forbidden to deliberate; and that the Silence which they have ſince kept was the Conſequence of that Prohibition; that penetrated with the moſt profound Reſpect for the King's Will, the Officers of the Chatelet have nothing more at Heart than to be able to reconcile their Submiſſion to his Orders with the Laws and their Oaths; that the Officers of the Chatelet, under the melancholy Circumſtances they are in venture to hope, from the Goodneſs of his Majeſty, that he will not diſapprove of the Prayers which they inceſſantly make for the Return of the Parliament, their lawful Superior.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, dated Jan. 18.

"The Court has received many Complaints againſt the Corſairs of Barbary, who have lately ſtopped ſeveral of our Veſſels, tho' furniſhed with proper Paſſes. Among others, the St. Anthony, bound from Bourdeaux to Martinico, was taken by two Algerine Chebecks off the Azores, and carried into Algiers, where ſhe was detained above a Month. The Marſhal Lowendahl, bound from Newfoundland, with 4000 Quintals of Salt-Fiſh on board, was purſued by one of theſe Pirates on the Coaſt of Spain, into the Port of Alicant; and the St. Andrew was obliged to ſubmit to be viſited by theſe Infidels. We are impatient to know what Satisfaction the Court will demand for all theſe Inſults, eſpecially as our Conſul, when he went to make Remonſtrances to the Dey concerning the cruel Indignity offered to the French Captain lately carried into Algiers, was not only refuſed Audience, but Orders were given to put the Ship's Crew in Irons. The King appeared to be much affected with theſe Complaints: But the News of the Conſul's Departure was probably premature, for a Frigate of 28 Guns is fitting out at Toulon to carry him new Inſtructions."

Vienna, Jan. 3. The new Palace, to the Aſtoniſhment of all Strangers here, has been finiſhed within the Time propoſed, ſo that their Imperial Majeſty has given the publick Entertainment ſhe intended with all the Eaſe and with all the Magnificence imaginable. They may, in other Countries, boaſt of having puſhed the Arts to a higher Degree of Perfection, yet, amongſt candid Judges, it will be thought ſomething in Favour of the Ruſſians, that in thirty-three Days they began and finiſhed a Palace, ſo large, ſo commodious, and ſo ſplendid, that every Body applauded the Generoſity of her Imperial Majeſty, who ordered Fifty-Thouſand Rubles to be diſtributed amongſt the Workmen.

Milan, Jan. 15. His Serene Highneſs the Duke of Modena arrived here Yeſterday in the Evening, he took Poſſeſſion of the Government in the Name of the Archduke this Day, and it is thought will ſet out in a Fortnight's Time for Venice, to participate in the Diverſions of the Carnival. It is remark'd, that to avoid diſpleaſing a neighbouring Court, we do not find Vicar of the Empire amongſt his Serene Highneſs's Titles. The Chevalier de Chauvelin is actually at Turin, has met with a very polite and kind Reception, and there is a Report of a Corps of Twenty-four Thouſand French aſſembling in Languedoc.

Berlin, Jan. 23. The Court ſeems to be entirely immerged in Show and Pleaſure; but thoſe who ſee cleareſt, believe that there is ſomething upon the Carpet of great Importance in the midſt of theſe Diverſions. They even go as far as to aſſert, that a new Quadruple Alliance is negotiating, and perhaps on the Point of being ſigned.

Paris, Jan. 23. The King is not altogether recovered from his Cold. There was a Council of State held two Days ago, and though the Reſult is not known, yet we continue to hope the beſt with reſpect to the Parliament, and as the Chamber Royal has lately received a ſevere Check for attempting to extend their Juriſdiction, this ſerves to ſtrengthen our Hopes. The Grand Signior has declared in expreſs Terms to the Magiſtracy at Algiers, that if they perſiſt in their preſent Meaſures, he ſhall abandon them to the Reſentment of our Court.

Hague, Jan. 28. It is confirmed, that the neceſſary Meaſures are already taken for re-building all the Fleet belonging to the Republick, and to put them in as formidable a Condition as formerly. Advices from Breda mention the Death of the Colonel Commandant of Lieutenant General Conſtant's Swiſs Regiment.

Bruſſels, Jan. 24. We don't know whether the French Court has cloſed with the Propoſition made to her about ſending Commiſſaries to Dunkirk, in order to inſpect the new Works of that Port in Company with the Deputies whom the Maritime Powers ſhould appoint for that Purpoſe; but we are aſſured, that, by Order of the ſaid Court, all the Works in Queſtion have been ſhewn to Mr. Cornabe, Major-General in the Service of the States General, who lately repaired to Dunkirk with an Engliſh Engineer.

Liſbon, Dec. 30. Mr. Caſtres, Engliſh Miniſter, has had a Conference with the Secretaries of State, and has diſpatched one of his Domeſticks to London on this Occaſion, as we hear, with 28 Articles, which it is hoped will obviate all Difficulties between this and the Britiſh Court.

Copenhagen, Jan. 19. The famous Jew Lazarus, who was lately taken into Cuſtody for lending Money to young Noblemen at Play, and for the Support of other Expences, procured his Liberty by diſcovering that there were great many Chriſtians who dealt in theſe Jewiſh Arts, upon which the King has eſtabliſhed a Special Commiſſion to enquire into the Affair, and to puniſh the Offenders, being determined to drive Gaming, Fraud, and Extortion, out of his Dominions.

Vienna, Jan. Armourers, Tent-makers, and other Tradeſmen, who Implements of War, have their Hands full, and it is thought will ſcarce be able to execute their Commiſſions within the Time aſſigned them.

Paris, Jan. 26. The Chatelet two Days ago had a very full Aſſembly; but the Reſolutions taken therein are kept a very great Secret. We only know the firſt was carried unanimouſly, which was to deliver no Priſoners to the Chamber Royal, let the Conſequence be what it will. Some great Miniſters being indiſpoſed, Cardinal Tencin has received the King's expreſs Commands to return to Court, which has revived the expiring Hopes of thoſe who had laid large Sums on the Return of the Parliament.

Naples, Jan. 8. On Advice from Leghorn, that many Barbary Corſairs are at preſent in the Canal of Piompino, the Court has ordered two Men of War and a Frigate, to be fitted out immediately, in order to go in Purſuit of thoſe Pirates.

Rome, Jan. 12. The Count de Riviere, Miniſter from the King of Sardinia, had a long Conference this Week with the Pope, to whom he communicated the Contents of ſome important Diſpatches received from his Court. We are very impatient to ſee the Deciſion of the Affair concerning the Nunciature of Turin, and hope it will be accommodated to mutual Satisfaction.

Leghorn, Jan. 11. According to private Letters from Vienna, the Empreſs Queen has reſolved to have in the Spring an Army of 40000 Men in Lombardy, including the Troops in Garriſon in that Country.

Paris A-La-Main, Jan. 28. They write from Genoa of the 14th of this Month, that an Affair has happened to a French Courier, which makes ſome Noiſe. This Courier, who was going to Parma with a Quantity of Preſents, which the King and the Royal Family were ſending by way of New-Year's Gifts to the Infanta Dutcheſs, as they all together made a conſiderable large Pack, the Officers of the Cuſtoms at Voghera ſeized upon them, permitting the Courier to go forward with the Letters, but detaining all the Reſt. Madam the Infanta, who expected theſe Things with great Impatience, was extremely piqued at the Diſappointment, and immediately after receiving Notice of what had happened, ſent one of her Couriers to demand the Things that had been ſtopped, not doubting but the King of Sardinia would not only cauſe them to be releaſed, but would blame the Conduct of the Farmer who cauſed that Seizure.

Dreſden, Jan. 21. Yeſterday, about Six a Clock, the Princeſs Royal was happily delivered of a Son, who has been baptized by Names enough to fill a Paragraph; but the firſt of them was Joſephus. There has been a great Gang of moſt dangerous Thieves and Cheats diſcover'd at Liepſick by one of their Companions, and arreſted, amongſt whom are ſeveral Jews, and one in particular, who, by Lotteries and Games of Chance, had drawn from unwary People forty Thouſand Florins, which were found about him.

Vienna, Jan. 23. The Field Marſhal Count Neuperg, Governor of Luxembourgh, deſigns to come to this Place, in order to aſſiſt at the different Councils which are to be held upon the Subject of putting that important City in ſuch a proper State of Defence as to render it impregnable in caſe of an Attack.

Paris, Jan. 28. The Earl of Albemarle has lately had ſeveral Conferences with the Miniſtry, which is apprehended to be on Account of S. G------, Eſq; concerning the Lottery.

Paris, Feb. 1. Orders have been ſent to Breſt to equip, with the greateſt Diligence, a ſmall Squadron, the Deſtination of which remains a Secret to the Publick. Things are like to run very high in Favour of the Parliament, the Royal Chamber not having been able to carry their Point, and the Prejudice of the Publick againſt it growing ſtronger and ſtronger every Day.

Hamburgh, Jan. 28. Orders have been received at Schleſwick and Holſtein, to prepare for the Reception of a Body of Troops, which his Daniſh Majeſty intends ſhall encamp in thoſe Dutchies early in the Spring.

Genoa, Jan. 16. The Inhabitants of St. Remo not being able to brook the ſevere Treatment of the Republick, have been juſt on the Point of another Attempt to ſhake off their Yoke: But the Genoeſe Government, being apprized of their Scheme a few Days before it was to be put in Execution, ſeized on all the principal Conſpirators.

Turin, Jan. 18. The Affairs between our Court and that of Rome, in relation to the Nunciature, continues on the ſame Footing. The Cardinal Des-Lances has many Times ſounded the King, to ſee if an Accomodation could not be brought about, but his Majeſty remains inflexible; and there is no Likelihood that he will agree to any Terms inconſiſtent with the Dignity and Prerogatives of his Crown.

Aix in Provence, Jan. 18. On the 14th the Parliament of this City aſſembled to deliberate upon the Meaſures proper to be taken in Conſequence of the Orders which were come to Mr. Ripert de Monclar, the King's Attorney-General, to repair to Court, and thereupon took the following Reſolutions: "That the Charges of the Attorney-General, who was ordered thither by a Letter from the Chancellor, ſhould be defrayed by the Parliament; that the Parliament ſhould write to the King, to demand that Juſtice might have its free Courſe; that Audience ſhould be denied to any one whom the Parliament would have impriſoned, had it not been for reſpectful Conſiderations; and that a Preſident, two Counſellors, and a King's Council, ſhould be deputed to carry this Letter, and lay it at the Foot of his Majeſty's Throne."

Paris A-la-Main, Feb. 1. The Parliament of Rouen was to ſit Yeſterday, and, it is ſaid, there are three Points upon which the Members intend chiefly to deliberate; one of them is to demand Mr. Duboſſe, one of their Brethren, who was baniſhed, and who was promiſed to be reſtored to them: Another Point relates to an Arret, which the Council of State paſſed ſome Months ſince, for ſilencing a Profeſſor of Divinity, for advancing ſeveral Things, which gave Riſe to the preſent Miſunderſtanding between the Clergy and the Parliament. The Parliament of Rouen pretend, that this Affair was entirely under their Cognizance, and that it was their Right to determine it, without an Arret from the Council of State. The third Point is, to agree upon beſeeching his Majeſty, to give an Anſwer to the laſt Remonſtrances they made to him.

LONDON, January 26.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Greenock in North-Britain, to his Friend in London.

"I have already, I fear, too far treſpaſſed on your Time and Patience, but I cannot prevail on myſelf to conclude, without giving you the following ſhort Deſcription of our Herring Fiſhery in the River Clyde.

"We have near eight hundred ſmall Veſſels, four or five Highlanders in each, now fiſhing in a moſt delightful River ſome Miles over, who frequently catch the Quantity of about twelve hundred Barrels (twelve to the Laſt) in one Night's Take, or Fiſhing; all brought into Greenock next Morning for Sale, and curing for Exportation; about ſeven hundred Laſts already caught ſince the Middle of October; the Fiſhing ſtill going on with great Briſkneſs, and ſeldom over till the Month of January; the fineſt Herrings I ever ſaw or taſted, and great Numbers of them weighing more than an Engliſh Pound. The choiceſt Salmon alſo in the Seaſon, for a Penny and three Halfpence per Pound, and the fineſt of other white Fiſh in Proportion, all taken juſt under our Windows; ſuch, dear Sir, (notwithſtanding the wrong Opinion ſome People have of Scotland, or North-Britain) are the natural Riches and Production of the famous River Clyde, all within immediate Sight of Greenock and Port Glaſgow; two ſhort Miles only from each other."

Feb. 2. It is ſaid that when a certain Ambaſſador waited upon a great Perſonage to know the Deſtination of a Fleet now fitting out, he replied, he had no Inſtructions to give him an Anſwer upon that Head, but that if he wanted an Eclairciſſement he muſt wait upon his M, who told him, that as his Court had not by him notified the Deſtination of their Fleet, it could not be expected that any Anſwer ſhould be given him in reſpect of the Deſtination of the Br---t--ſh Fleet.*

According to private Letters from Ireland, never was a greater Commotion known among the Great, nor a greater Dejection among the Traders of that Kingdom. Money, at all Times ſcarce, is ſcarcer than ever; it having been thought prudent, in the preſent Situation of Affairs, to ſtop up the Channel which ſupplied the Bankers with Caſh to diſcount Notes, &c. Thoſe concerned in the Woollen Branch ſuffer particularly, from another Cauſe: The Diſtemper among the Horned Cattle in England having led the Farmers to ſtock more with Sheep than uſual, the Demand for Wool from Ireland is become inconſiderable.

We hear from Woolwich, that the Company that are ordered for the Eaſt-Indies are confined within the Warren for fear of Deſertion.

There is a Talk that ſeveral Changes will ſoon be made in ſome of the Publick Offices under the Government.

The late Preſs alarmed many People, but the Reaſon given for ſending a Fleet to the Eaſt Indies, (viz. becauſe two Squadrons had been ſent thither by the French) is groundleſs; nor are there any Apprehenſions that the French deſign to order any Ships of War to thoſe Parts: But the laſt Eaſt India Ships which France ſent out, carried each of them near four Hundred Men to ſtrengthen their Forces at Pondicherry; and therefore it is with good Foundation thought, that our Government cannot avoid aſſiſting the Eaſt-India Company in ſupporting themſelves in their Eaſt India Settlements.

It is ſaid, that the Fleet deſigned for the Eaſt Indies, will not ſail ſo ſoon as was expected, and that a Sloop of War is to ſtop at the Cape de Verd Iſland, in Order to receive Inſtructions from England, and to carry them from thence to the Fleet in the Eaſt-Indies.

The Number of Hands lately preſſed for Sea-Services, being more than ſufficient, agreeable to Orders given, a conſiderable Number was diſcharged the Beginning of this Week, in doing which Regard was had to the Induſtrious, and ſuch as had Families.

Extract of a Letter from Goſport, Feb. 2.

"On Tueſday was hauled out of Dock his Majeſty's Ship Kent. She is rigging with the utmoſt Expedition, near 400 Men being employed on that Work.

"The Portmahon Man of War remains at Spitehead, waiting for Sailing Orders.

"The Experiment and Arundel Men of War will ſoon be ready for Sea.

"The Captain Guardſhip will go into Dock the next Spring Tide."

We hear, that the Hon. Colonel Cornwallis, late Governor of Nova-Scotia, will ſucceed the late Sir Danvers Oſborne, Bart. as Governor of New-York.

Feb. 5. A Dutch Gazette ſays, that the Negociation between our Eaſt-India Company and that of France is not only ſuſpended, but entirely broke off; that the French are taking proper Meaſures to put their Settlements in the Eaſt-Indies in a good State of Defence; and that the Engliſh Company purpoſe to raiſe 600 Men to ſend thither, beſides the Regular Troops, and five Men of War to be ſent by the Government. The Convention could not be concluded (ſay theſe Advices) becauſe the Engliſh Company would not acknowledge the Nabob ſet up by the French, nor conſent to the entire and unreſerved Reſtitution of the Territories which they have acquired in Aſia within theſe two Years.

The Officers of the Police at Paris having ſurprized a Company playing at unlawful Games of Chance in a private Houſe, they ſwept off the Money on the Table to the Amount of 1100 Livres, and the Maſter of the Houſe is fined in 1000 Livres, the whole to be applied to the Uſe of the Hoſpitals.

On Saturday there was a Board of Admiralty, which ſat late, and on their riſing, Meſſengers were diſpatched to ſeveral Sea Ports.

Feb. 7. Some Algerine Xebecks have again viſited the Coaſt of Portugal, from whence they have carried off two Portugueze Veſſels, and ſome of their Fiſhermen.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris, Jan. 26.

"You are very deſirous of being informed what the Motives are to the General Opinion that prevails here, that the Parliament muſt be recalled and reſtored to its ancient Splendor. Theſe I ſhall give you as ſuccinctly as I can.

In the firſt Place then, if the Parliament be not in all Reſpects the antient Conſtitution of this Country, it has, at leaſt, the Reſemblance of it; it is compoſed of Dukes and Peers, who though they are not to be compared with the antient Peers of France, yet they are ſuperior to the reſt of the Nobleſſe, and of Civil and Eccleſiaſtical Judges verſed in the Laws, and ſworn to maintain them.

Being conſidered in this Light, attracts the Confidence of many, and the Reverence of all, which never appears ſo clearly as when the Privileges of that illuſtrious Body are attacked, for then their Influence and Connections extend wherever Juſtice is adminiſtred, that is, through all the Judicatories throughout the Kingdom; for theſe are all of them either dependent upon or Copies from the Parliament of Paris.

But what perhaps pinches more than all the reſt is, the notion that prevails as if Money could not be legally raiſed upon the Subject if the Edicts for that Purpoſe be not regiſter'd in their Court; ſo that take all theſe Circumſtances together, and join them to the known Goodneſs and Benignity of the Sovereign, inſtead of being amazed that ſuch a Rumour mour gains Ground. I flatter myself you will be convinced that it is always probable, and in the End must prove true."

By private Letters from Dunkirk, of the 2d ult. we are inform[ed] that the Accounts received there of a very formidable Fleet being g[ett]ing ready in England to sail for the East-Indies, occasion'd great Speculations. The said Letter adds, that two Commissaries had been at that Place to view the Fortifications, but were returned home, and that the Canal digging on the Land Side goes on with all possible Dispatch.

It is reported (but we hope without Foundation) that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, will shortly resign that high Office.

Feb. 9. According to private Advices from the Hague, it was asserted there, that General Cornabe, who lately visited the Works at Dunkirk on the Part of the States General, had reported to the Princess Governante, that the new Works were manifestly contrary to Treaty.

According to private Letters from Stockholm, the French and Spaniards both are very assiduous, in procuring Ships of War, and Frigates, to be built in the Swedish Ports, which as soon as finished are to sail with a full Cargo of Military and Naval Stores on board, the necessary Remittances being already made for that Purpose; and some Rumours there are of new Treaties of Commerce between Sweden and the other two Crowns.

By the Joseph, Capt. Bryant, arriv'd at New-York from London in 30 Days Passage, we have the following Advices, viz.

Naples Jan. 22. The Marquis d'Ossun, Ambassador from France, is returned Home. Various Reasons are assigned for his precipitate Departure. Some say it was occasioned by his Majesty's refusing to accept of the French King's Mediation for accommodating his Difference with Malta. Others pretend that the Minister having solicited the King, in the Name of his Master, to accede to the Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle, his Majesty formerly refused to do it, that he might not prejudice the Right of his Heirs Male to the Crown of the Two Sicilies, in case he should be called to the Spanish Throne; and that the Court of Versailles was so much picqued at this Want of Complaisance, that she recalled her Minister.

Paris, Feb. 28. This Morning the Duke of Aquitaine, the Dauphin's youngest Son, died at Versailles, aged five Months and fourteen Days.

Aix, in Provence, Jan. 20. The Topaz Frigate sails this Week to demand Satisfaction of the Regency of Algiers for insulting the French Flag; and will be followed by two Men of War of Seventy four, two of sixty-four Guns, and three Bomb-Ketches.

Dusseldorp, Feb. 18. A considerable Number of Sabres, Swords and Bayonets, are making at Sohlinguen; and of Fusees, Carabins and Pistols at Liege, Essen, and Bourg, for the Service of France; which are all to be delivered in April.

Paris A-la-main, March 1. Last Monday the Corpse of the young Duke of Aquitaine, after lying in State a short Time, was carried to St. Dennis, and deposited in the Burial-place belonging to the Royal Family. The Provost of the Merchants waited on his Majesty at Versailles, to know if he would be pleased to have a Stop put to publick Diversions, on Account of the Death of the young Prince; but his Majesty, in Consideration of the great Expences which People had been at on Account of the Carnival, would not have them discontinued.

From the Utrecht Gazette.

London, Feb. 19. Notwithstanding the Preparations for sending a considerable Reinforcement to the East-Indies, the Negotiation for the Convention so long talked of goes on successfully between the Duke de Mirepoix, M. Duvelaer, the French India Company's Agent, and the Ministers of this Court.----So that if it takes Place, our hasty Armament may end in a Spithead Expedition.

From the Amsterdam Gazette.

London, Feb. 19. As there is no Prospect of adjusting the Difference with France about the Limits of Nova-Scotia, we are assured that the Government has resolved to send over a strong Reinforcement of Troops by the two Men of War destined for that Colony.

LONDON.

Feb. 16. The King of Sardinia remains still inflexible, as to any Accommodation with the Court of Rome, that shall in the least be inconsistent with the Dignity and Prerogative of his Crown.

Feb. 23. Letters from Leghorn say, that the French Squadron is very speedily expected in the Mediterranean, in order, as it is said, to act against the Algerines; and a Report prevails as if a Convention was concluded between the Courts of Paris and Madrid on the same Subject; but many suspect that this conjunct Expedition will not be against Pyrates.

We hear that an Ambassador of high Rank residing here approves so little of the Behaviour of his Court to England, that he has demanded to be recalled.

It is said the French intend to make once more an Attempt to establish a Colony on Madagascar; and that when all their Contracts in Sweden are fulfilled, their Fleet will make as good a Figure as it ever did in the last Reign.

Orders are given for fifty Men to be draughted from ten Regiments on the Irish Establishment, to compleat Col. Adlercon's Regiment of Foot, who are to rendezvous at Cork, and are to be embark'd from thence for the East-Indies with all possible Expedition.

Feb. 25. A Dutch Gazette tells us, that Mr. Mitchell, the Prussian Minister, has lately had a Conference with one of the Principal Secretaries of State, in relation to the Stopping the Interest of South-Sea Stock belonging to his Prussian Majesty's Subjects.

A Letter from Gibraltar, of the 19th of December, advises, that they were threatened by the Alcaid of Tetuan with a War, by which Gibraltar must have suffered greatly, as the greatest Part of its Provisions came from Tetuan. The English Consul was even threatened with Irons if he did not leave Tetuan in forty-eight Hours. But Captain Hervey, in his Majesty's Ship, the Phœnix, arriving next Day, the Alcaid was brought to change his Tune; and the Communication between Gibraltar and that Place is again opened.

Feb. 26. They write from Ireland, that House-rent at Kinsale is already considerably raised on Account of the Prospect of a War with France.

March 1. It is reported that the Court of France have declared that the Fleet lately fitted out by them is intended purely to exercise the Sailors.

March 2. It is said that the Swedish East-India Company are taking proper Steps to prevent the Growth of French Power, in or near any of their Settlements.

March 5. A Letter from Glasgow says, that 7 Ships of War were soon expected in Clyde, but on what Design was not known.

We are informed that Sir Edward Hawke has declined the Command of the Men of War fitting out for the East-Indies.

March 6. Letters from Naples advise, that they are taking every Measure to put their Navy on a good Footing; and that Orders are given for augmenting it with some Men of War and Frigates.

At Algiers they are making Dispositions which very plainly intimate their Apprehensions of a Siege. If the Preparations that are making at Toulon be designed against Algiers, the Bombardment will be most furious.

March 6. According to a Dutch Gazette, the Affair of the Difference between the Courts of England and Prussia will not be laid before the Parliament.

March 7. Yesterday Morning, about 6 a Clock, died the Right Hon. Henry Pelham, only Brother to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, first Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor and Under Treasurer of the Exchequer, a Governor of the Charter-house, Fellow of the Royal Society, and one of his Majesty's most honourable Privy-Council.

'Tis said Mr. Pelham will be succeeded, as Chancellor of the Exchequer, by Henry Fox, Esq; Secretary at War.

March 9. Last Monday Morning the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD at the Tabernacle in Moorfields, preached his Farewel Sermon, and set out, with about twenty Orphans, for Georgia.

March 9. We hear it is proposed to annex the Province of New-Jersey to that of New-York.

We hear that Admiral Watson has received his last Instructions to take upon him the Command of the Squadron of Men of War at Plymouth.

On Wednesday Mr. Shepherd, one of his Majesty's Messengers, set out from the Secretary of State's Office with Dispatches for Holland and Vienna.

His Grace the Duke of New-Castle is greatly indisposed at New-Castle House.

March 11. We hear that as his Grace the Duke of New-Castle has no Heir, the Title, by an Act of Parliament, will descend to the Heirs of the Earl of Lincoln.

Gosport, Feb. 22. The Press for Men was slack for some Days, but was renewed again with Vigour on Monday Morning.

PHILADELPHIA, April 18.

By the publick Papers we have the following Arrivals, viz.

From VIRGINIA. The Two Brothers, Ainsdel, at Dover; John and Bella, Benson, at Whitehaven.

From NEW-ENGLAND. The Elizabeth, Bailey, at Dartmouth; Catherine, ------, at Weymouth; Lark, Wingfield, at Bilboa.

The Ship Myrtilla left the Land with Captain Mesnard for this Place.

Yesterday the Dursley Galley, Capt. Hamilton, arrived here from Cork, in a short Passage, by whom we have an Account of the following Vessels being arrived in Ireland from this Place, viz. The Lucas, Magee, and the Susanna, Rankin, at Newry. The Ross, Duncan, the Alexander, Betaugh, and Argyle, Roberts, at Cork. The Holderness, Simpson, and Dorset, Rankin, at Dublin. The Fanny, Gardiner, at Belfast. The William and George, Dunbar, at Learn. The Culloden, Moore, Hamilton-Galley, Macilvaine, Ariana, Kenedy, and City of Derry, Caldwell, at Londonderry. The last mentioned Vessel in her Passage struck a Whale, by which she received a good Deal of Damage; and Part of her Cargoe was obliged to be thrown over board.

Capt. Hamilton likewise advises of the safe Arrival of Captain Lee at Cork, from Wilmington. Also that the Captain of a Schooner belonging to South-Carolina, and bound to Cork, with some of his Hands, were wash'd overboard and drowned on the Passage; but that the Vessel had got in, and sailed again for Carolina in Company with him, under the Command of Captain Boyle, of New-York.

Capt. Glentworth, in the Hope, of and for this Port, was to sail soon after Capt. Hamilton.

By Letters from London (Via New-York) there is Advice, that the Beulah, Capt. Ritchie, was to sail for this Place the 13th or 14th of last Month; and that the London, Capt. Shirley, would be ready to sail in about three Weeks after.

The Sarah, Capt. Mitchell, was also up for this Port; but the Letters don't mention the Time of her Sailing.

Saturday last the Assembly of this Province adjourn'd to the sixth of May next.

We hear from Carlisle, in Cumberland County, that about three Weeks since John Hart, an Indian Trader, being arrested in his own House, and struggling with the Sheriff, one Moreton, a Neighbour, who happen'd to be present, interfer'd, and oblig'd the Sheriff to let go his Hold; and Hart getting into an inner Room, threaten'd to shoot the Sheriff, if he did not immediately leave the House, who accordingly went away. But Moreton being afterwards inform'd, that by rescuing Hart he was become liable to pay the Debt, unless Hart was retaken; he went with the Sheriff and some others to Hart's House, in order to take him: Hart, however, standing on his Defence, shot Moreton through the Head, dead upon the Spot, and then made his Escape.

Extract of a Letter from Williamsburgh, dated March 25.

"I am sorry Pennsylvania has as yet contributed nothing to the Ohio Expedition, but hope at their next Meeting something will be done. The Province of North-Carolina has given Twelve Thousand Pounds, Proc. [equal to 9000 l. Sterling] and order'd 750 Men to be immediately march'd into Virginia, under the Command of Colonel Innis. There is no Doubt but the Men will be raised, for several of the Officers will be able to compleat their Companies in five or six Days. This Advice we have from an Officer just come in from Carolina."

THE drawing to begin on the 24th day of June next, or ſooner, if ſooner full, in the preſence of at leaſt three of the managers, and as many of the adventurers as ſhall think fit to attend, and continue drawing till finiſhed.

A liſt of the prizes to be publiſhed in the publick papers as ſoon as the drawing is compleated, that the fortunate may know the fate of their tickets.

The money to be paid to the fortunate, as ſoon as the drawing is finiſhed, the ſum of Fifteen per Cent. being firſt deducted.

The managers appointed are Sebaſtine Neff, George Donnenhaver, Jacob Miller, Charles Hay, Jacob Beyerle, and Matthias Gainſele, who are to give bond, and be upon oath for the faithful diſcharge of their truſt.

The tickets will begin to be ſold by the managers, at their reſpective dwellings on Friday the 7th of September inſt.

We hope a deſign of this kind will meet with encouragement, as the only motive that induced the ſociety to enter on ſuch a ſcheme, was their being thoroughly ſenſible of the diſadvantages they labour under, and the great neceſſity there is of a houſe in Germantown, for their miniſter to inſtruct thoſe children in reading and writing, whoſe parents are unable to give them ſuch education; and as the ſociety amongſt themſelves are unable to accompliſh ſuch an undertaking, were importuned to have recourſe to a lottery, in order to enable them to carry on the ſame, as it will tend to the publick good.

N. B. The drawing to be fixed in ſuch manner that in the firſt 4746 tickets in every ſeven following numbers there ſhall be two prizes certain; and in the remaining 254 in every four following numbers ſhall be one prize certain; ſo that any adventurer upon purchaſing ſeven following numbers cannot poſſibly loſe but two Pieces of Eight, and the Fifteen per Cent. of the two prizes, that is, ſetting the caſe he gets the loweſt prizes, tho' nevertheleſs at the ſame time he ſtands as fair a chance for any of the higher prizes, as in the drawing of any other lottery.

Tickets in the above lottery are alſo to be had at Mr. Daniel Benezet's, and Mrs. Alexander Huſton's.

CHOICE eating oil by the jar, gallon, quart or flask, choice anchovies, capers and olives, floor matts of sundry sizes, and carpets for floors or tables, &c. ¶

Notice is hereby given, That
EDWARD BROADFIELD,
Is removed from Bordentown to Trenton,

AND continues to pickle sturgeon in the safest and best manner, and with more conveniency for the getting the fish alive out of the river, than at Bordentown; and persons who did favour him with their custom last year, may depend upon being equally or better served now, being more in his power for the reasons aforesaid: And all persons who shall buy to export abroad, if care be taken that the kegs lose not their pickle, will be warranted to keep good in the hottest climate for two years; and all persons who shall have occasion for present use, and home consumption, when they open the kegs, will first draw off the pickle below the bung, then take out the head, put the bung in tight, harden the hoops on, put the pickle in, and cloth on the keg, with the head upon that, with a small weight thereon to keep the air out, and you may preserve the fish as long as you please. The said fish is to be sold by no other persons than Nathaniel Allen, jun. in Water-street, opposite William Allen, Esq; or said Broadfield, at Trenton.

N. B. Whereas one William Pancoast, of Bordentown, the last season, having my brand at his house, branded a parcel of kegs with the said brand, which has given me great reason to believe it was done with an intent of imposing his fish for mine, therefore I have thought proper to inform the publick, that they might not suffer by such a deceit; and if the said William Pancoast shall be prov'd to offer any of the said kegs, in my name, to sale, or any other person for him, will be prosecuted as the law directs.

1872	Blanks,
3000	Tickets, at four Pieces of Eight,			12000

Not quite one blank and three quarters to a prize.

AS soon as the lottery is drawn, an account of the fortunate tickets shall be published in the Pennsylvania Gazette, and the prizes paid by the signers of the respective tickets, after deducting Fifteen per Cent.

The following persons are appointed managers, viz. Henry Bassler, Daniel Bouton, Leonard Melchior, John Goll, Jacob Utrey, John Stillwagon, Jacob Maag, Bernard Lawerswyler, Christopher Geller, and John Kempfer, who are to give bond, and be on oath for the faithful performance of their trust.

The prizes not demanded in six months after the drawing, to be deemed generously given for the uses aforesaid, and not to be demanded afterwards.

We hope a design of this kind will meet with publick encouragement, as the society, without troubling others, hitherto have done all in their power to erect a place of worship in this city; but conceiving the instructing the rising generation of the utmost consequence, and many of the society unable to bear the expence of schooling, they have been tempted to take these measures to procure publick help to erect a school house, and assisting a master in instructing the helpless in the principles of religion, and the useful knowledge of reading and writing.

The drawing to begin on the 20th day of May next, and to continue till finished, at the new building next door to the sign of the Sassafras-tree, in Sassafras-street, commonly called Race-street, where due attendance and care shall be given by the managers; such of the adventurers as chuse to attend, may be by at the drawing.---Some tickets remaining abroad that we have no account of yet, and a few undisposed of by the managers, oblige us thus to put off the drawing for a few weeks.

SCHEME

Whereas on the petition of the trustees of the college of New-Jersey, lately presented to the General Court or Assembly of the colony of Connecticut, for the erection of a publick lottery in that colony, in favour of the said college; the said General Court or Assembly hath generously impowered the trustees of the said college to set up a lottery in their colony for the purpose above-mentioned: The said lottery will consist of 8888 tickets, of which 3088 are to be fortunate, viz.

Fifteen per Cent. to be deducted from the Prizes.

AS publick seminaries of learning not only tend to promote the private welfare of the communities in which they are founded, but to advance the honour, the reputation, and the happiness of a country in general; it is hoped, that all those who would encourage the progress of the liberal sciences, and are well-wishers to the propagation of christianity in these parts of the world, will chearfully become adventurers here; and the more freely, considering the above scheme is so well calculated for the benefit of the proprietors of tickets, as not to have two blanks to a prize. Publick notice will be given of the precise time of putting the tickets into the boxes, that such adventurers as are inclined, may be present when the same shall be done. The drawing to commence on the first Tuesday in June next, or sooner if full, at the town of Stamford in Connecticut, under the inspection of two justices of peace of the colony of Connecticut, and of two persons who shall be appointed by the trustees of the college of New-Jersey. The publick will have fourteen days notice of the time of drawing. The managers are sworn to the faithful discharge of the trust reposed in them, and have also given security for the same. The prizes will be published in the New-York and Pennsylvania Gazettes, and the money paid to the possessors of benefit tickets, as soon as the drawing is finished. Tickets are to be had at the dwelling-houses of Mr. John Lloyd, Ephraim Bostwick, Esq; and Dr. Nathaniel Hubbard, in the town of Stamford, in Connecticut, who are appointed managers. Tickets will also be sold by Mr. David Vanhorne, in New-York; Samuel Woodruff, Esq; in Elizabeth-town; Mr. Sergeant, treasurer of the college of New-Jersey, in Newark; John Stockton, Esq; in Prince-town; the Rev. Mr. Cowell, and messieurs Reed and Furman, in Trenton; Mr. Charles Hoff, junior, in Kingwood; Mr. John Imley, in Bordentown; and messieurs George Spafford, Andrew Reed, William Grant, John Sayre, Andrew Hodge, William Henry, Hugh M'Cullough, and Samuel Hazard, in Philadelphia. The prizes will be paid by those gentlemen who shall have disposed of the numbers drawing such prizes.
